I Called You for Every Moment of Your Life

In your walk with Me, I don't call you to seasons. For you who obey Me, I called for you every moment of your life. For who is it who directs your path? Who is it who leads you? For in these last days, you will enter into a place of such authority, you who endure—such authority—your eyes will behold many, many outstanding miracles and events that you will have to say that “We are having a visitation from the Lord God Almighty.”
