Things of the Spirit Are Understood With the Heart

It is My pleasure when I find those whom I can anoint beyond what is being walked in, in places where My Name is named. But hear what I would say. Hear what I would say. Hear what I would say: As the understanding of faith takes your heart and builds itself, you will see and you will say to yourself, “How come I couldn't do this six months ago? How come I can do this now?”

For things of the Spirit are not generally understood with the head but with the heart, and I have found enough to move a major direction towards the heart in this place. So hang on for change. It is at the door.
