Do What You Know to Do—This Is That Time

If there was ever a time in history where God was calling a group—I look around the room; I don't see many mighty, not many noble. I don't see the governor here; don't see the mayor. The world would look on this group and think, they wouldn't think real highly, even the religious world. But if there was ever a group of people whom God was calling to a time: Bore in, people, with everything that you know, with everything that you have been taught here. If there was ever a time to really bear down: Do what you know to do—this is that time.

Perilous days—the Scripture talks about perilous times. Not for you—right through the midst of it we will walk. We will be a light, and people will come to the light of Christ on the inside of us and the harvest will be great. But I am hearing words like: You won't even have the smell of smoke on you. You won't be touched by it. You will just walk through it.
