

The Lord's Present-Day Speaking

PT130526B – May 26, 2013
The Shortest Path Out of the Problem

The enemy has seen many people come this way, and he reads the signs from centuries before and knows when the time to step in [is] with all manner of chaos and destruction and to stop you before you take those next steps in. For he knows there is a time coming soon when people will really be looking for answers, and you will be here to give them to these people with My power, My answered prayer and My miracles.

You will see great things happen, and you, as an individual, will give Me thanks because you will never [have] dreamed that you could be used the way I am going to use you in this season of revival. So you should rejoice and be exceedingly glad for what you can't see and that you are going to see.

So stand up strong. Lift your hands in the middle of adversity and worship Me, and you are taking the shortest path out of that problem, says the Lord.