Go to School--Pray, Get Yourself Ready

What I have said in the past, I will say to you again: You don't have to bear that pain. You don't have to put up with it. At times, the devil will work on your believing process to neutralize you in a place to where, when it gets a little bit better, you stop. You need to see this thing through, for I have good news for you: I have already healed you. All I need you to do is stand up to him and [with] what I gave you, and you will see that you are free, but not only now, in the future. Because, do you think the future is going to be easier than now? Go to school. Pray. Get yourself ready, says the Lord.

For many of you, it will be the greatest times of harvest, and still, some will have a tendency to go down in weakness. Don't you be any of them, for I give you the keys. You need to teach them the keys. If they don't want to listen, teach them anyway. Many times, they are listening in private, but they have their pride.

So go on avenues—preach it; teach it everywhere that you can, because once they get the leadership of the Spirit in them, I will guide them. I will cause them, through the manifestations of My power, to walk out of everything that isn't into everything that is.
