The Year Where We Sell Out to Him

What I heard this afternoon in prayer: This year coming up is the year where we sell out to Him.

There is going to be great division in the church, and I am talking about The Prayer Center. With good intentions, but great warfare, some will stay; some will go. And I am telling you, that's okay.

It's the year of selling out to Him. Whatever His will is, I don't live unto myself anymore.
