A New Place of Consecration

I am pleased. I am pleased. Think not that I am [not] pleased with your walk to this point. Each and every one of you has put your hand into Mine and [has] let Me bring you this far, but now, I am looking ahead. I see where the path leads. I see the dangers and the glories that are there.

So rejoice at this season—that you have come to a new place of consecration—a place where the flesh says, “This far and no farther.” So at this point, the flesh must be crucified, and I will lead you into the fullness of all that I have called you to do, and the reward, the reward, the fullness of the harvest shall be so great. You shall rejoice in that day, though your flesh does not rejoice now. I am pleased, says the Lord, and you shall be too when you see the fruit.
