Ask That I Might Show You

There are things God is showing us—maybe something God has already shown you, and you didn't understand it, didn't know what it was—He is saying: Just ask of Me. Just ask of Me.

I am showing My people many things, says the Lord, for there have been times in the past when I have shown up, and I have spoken, and I have given visions, and I have given words of wisdom and understanding, but many have not received the fullness of what I have said. And then many have gone on and been disappointed—you have had hope deferred, because you have wondered why is it that which you have heard did not come to pass. But I say unto you, My children, ask of Me. Ask that I might show you what it is that I was saying, what it is that I was showing you, for many times men, in arrogance, have assumed they understood the things that I was saying. Men have assumed they have understood the things that I was showing. But I am saying unto you this night, if you will ask Me what meaneth this, you will see that I will show you. I will be faithful to say: This is the word of the Lord.
