

The Lord's Present-Day Speaking

One Anointed One in Us

In times past, the Lord manifested Himself through a gift of the Spirit. He would manifest even amongst babes in Christ, like the Corinthians, and the gifts would be made manifest, and they'd run off and merchandise it. They'd run off and make themselves "somewhat among them"—cliques would form and divisions would form.

I keep seeing this picture: This time, instead of a bunch of people rising up, you know, although there will be all of us rising up, as they do that, it is one Man rising up, and His Name is Christ. His Name is Jesus—that's what He is after.

Smith Wigglesworth said, "The filthy flesh has to be dealt with, and most men cannot stand the burnings." The purgings of pride, self, mammon—He has been dealing with all of us for years along those lines, because when He rises in us, it's Him who has to rise—Him—one Man, one Body with many parts, but one Body, one Man, one will, one mind, one Anointed One in us.
