A Time of Refreshing

I can hear these words: that there is a grace that's being released—a time of refreshing, of His Presence—that you can mark, mark this time, this time right now, that you are going to notice a difference.

It is a time of refreshing. His grace is going to empower us more—His Presence. And the enemy has tried to stop [us] relentlessly, but our God is bigger. And there is a grace that is being released.
