

The Lord's Present-Day Speaking

PT160420 – Apr 20, 2016

Invite Me—My Goodness Shall Follow You

If you will worship Me and praise Me and think in My goodness, many of these things and thoughts shall disappear, says the Spirit of Grace, for I come and inhabit My praises. For I have said unto you I would never leave you nor forsake you, so why would you think I would leave you like an orphan in the storm?

I love to come and fellowship with you, says the Lord. So simply invite Me and watch and see—My goodness shall follow you all the days of your life as you seek Me.