Come to Me

I can see a picture of God with His arms wide open saying: Come to Me. Come to Me. I haven't driven you away. You have driven yourself away. I have been there all the while with My arms stretched out saying, Come.

So embrace Me, love on Me, and let Me love on you so that you can receive the very thing that you need, the strength, the grace to believe that I made you pure. I made you righteous. And the hurt that was caused in your life, it didn't come from Me. I didn't send it. It wasn't from Me, and I am here to make sure that it gets healed, it gets changed.

So, Father, we thank You for Your grace right now—Your grace and Your Presence, Father. We thank You for the precious blood of Jesus that washes us, cleanses us from all unrighteousness. And it reminds us that we are pure and that we are holy, that we are Your children, that You never turn Your back on us even though we may have run from You a thousand times—You have never turned Your back on us. So we thank You for always being faithful to us in the good times and in the bad times.

Father, our heart is to know You more and to love You more. And if we have been doing things that we know that we should not have been, Father, we repent. We repent. We turn from it.

We thank You that You are cleansing us from all unrighteousness. You are washing us. You are empowering us to spend time with You to come to know the Father so that we can grow. We thank You for that, Father.

Hebrews 4:15,16 For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin.
16 Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need.

Psalms 138:2,3 I will worship toward thy holy temple, and praise thy name for thy lovingkindness and for thy truth: for thou hast magnified thy word above all thy name.
3 In the day when I cried thou answeredst me, and strengthenedst me with strength in my soul.

Philippians 2:13 For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure.

Psalms 147:3 He healeth the broken in heart, and bindeth up their wounds.
