Revival Is Delivered Line Upon Line, Precept Upon Precept

Be ready for the services around here to start changing. The flow of them and how things happen here—I'm still prophesying—and the order and the way things flow. We are right on the brink of something good. It's going to be awesome. It's going to be awesome. It's just right around the corner.

You say, "I don't feel that." I don't care what you feel.

"It doesn't look like it." I don't care what it looks like. This Word is truth, and this path works. We haven't been here all this time praying and fasting and spending time in worship and the Word for nothing.

For this revival is going to be delivered line upon line, precept upon precept, upon doctrine and truth of who God is. It takes a while to build this structure, but listen, once this structure is built, it is game over. We are all going with it. It is being built line upon line—all the doctrine, all the teaching—listen, it has all been necessary.

And many have had questions of why we have camped on certain things for so long, but there have been truths that have been removed from the Body of Christ. There have been truths that have been taken away that God has had to reestablish line upon line, precept upon precept. And things are established line upon line and precept upon precept—He will put another brick in the wall that builds the layer stronger. It builds it stronger so the structure gets stronger with truth and doctrine—truths that were removed through the generations that should have never been removed. We are having to dig them back out by praying in the Holy Spirit, letting Him re-teach us the truth that was delivered to the early Church.

And many have had questions of why we have camped so long on certain things, and I hear God saying: It is because it was necessary to rebuild it.

The Holy Spirit was taken out of the Body of Christ—speaking in tongues, the power of the new nature, mortification—so don't be surprised if we camp on more and more things in the future, because it is absolutely necessary for the doctrine to be reestablished here line upon line, precept upon precept, here a little, there a little. As we give ourselves to the meditation of the Word and praying in the Holy Spirit, He is going to build more and more.

It's been God's will. To reestablish the foundation takes time.

John 17:17 Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth.

Isaiah 28:10-12 For precept must be upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little: For with stammering lips and another tongue will he speak to this people. To whom he said, This is the rest wherewith ye may cause the weary to rest; and this is the refreshing: yet they would not hear.

2Ti 3:16-17 All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: That the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works.
