There Is a Revolution Beginning

I have been fathering My family, but most have drawn the window shades by believing falsehoods; therefore, too little of the light of truth has shined in their hearts to see Me as I really am. I am your Father. I am the One who loves you beyond your understanding. I am good and kind and gracious and faithful, and it is the pleasure of My heart to do for My family all that was done through My Son.

The limits are coming off. The boundaries between you and Me that have been brought about by wrong thinking and believing are being dismantled. The window shades are being opened to see Me as you stay very close to Me.

Stay close. Stay very close to Me, very connected to Me, because there is much I can do through your closeness to Me, your attentiveness to Me, for in this, you allow Me to minister to you and give to you exactly what you need most from Me. Stay close and connected, because in this, I can do many things.

There is a revolution beginning in My Body, and this will make other moves that have happened seem lightweight, though none have been lightweight, for they have all been movements of light and truth leading many into more of Me.

This revolution is a strong overthrowing of wrong thinking that has kept many in chains of defeat. But, oh, the light is getting brighter, and many chains will be falling at the feet of My Body.

So get ready. Stay close and come closer and closer, for I am drawing you. And the understanding you are receiving and the revelation you are walking into will bring about a widespread, unshakeable revolution.

This is My revolution, and endurance has brought you this far, and endurance will take you much further. I am your Strength to endure, to overcome, and to ride on My heights of victory.

I am overjoyed, for my fathering has had everything to do with where we are now and has everything to do with all that you will do in Me. Come closer. Come even closer, for all you need is right here in Me, in My arms, where I am instructing you and being perfect in My fathering.

Yield to My Spirit, for He is leading you deeper and deeper into Me where My Fatherhood will mean so much more than you have ever dreamed. I am your Father, and I know exactly what you need, and that is to come closer so that I might show you how I see things about you and about Me. Come close and stay very close to Me, for in that, I can do many, many things.
