

The Lord's Present-Day Speaking

PT161009 – Oct 9, 2016
Judgment is Coming

Say not within yourself nor with your mouth “Yet four months and then cometh the harvest,” for I would say unto you, Look upon the fields, for they are ripe—present tense—ready to harvest, says the Spirit of Grace. Do not say that in a time to come there will be a harvest, but say—present tense: This is the time of harvest, says the Spirit of Grace.

Do not wait. Do not wait upon your faults, failures, character flaws to be perfected before you begin to enter into this harvest, says the Spirit of Grace. One must be done, and the other also must be done, for there must be a purging, and there must be a mortification in your prayer closet and in your personal life. That is one part. The other part is that I am sending you out into the harvest, even not yet perfected. And I will be with you in your imperfections. And I will be with you in your character flaws. And I will be with you in your shortcomings, and the enemy will not be able to destroy you.

To those who will take heed and go out, know this: If you will spend that time; if you will labor in My Presence, then I will purge you, and I will keep you. And the one will be a part of the other in that the enemy will not be able to destroy you because of your character flaws, if you are doing the things that allow Me to come and purge you. But do not wait; do not wait. Enter into this harvest.

Enter into this harvest, and by that, I mean not just the spreading of the Gospel of good news, as in salvation, but include all the parts of salvation—lay hands on the sick. Lay hands on the sick and see them recover. And even when you do not see them recover continue to lay hands on the sick. For the day and hour will come where both will match perfectly, says the Spirit of Grace. And that which you are doing in the prayer closet will match up with that which you were doing in the field, and the two will come together in perfect harmony, says the Spirit of Grace.

Be not fearful, for great things are coming on the earth that will bring great fear. And when I say “Fear,” I am not just talking about the unbeliever. Much of my Church will shake and fear. There are those even in your midst presently, in this house this morning, who will shake and fear. Anxiety attacks will increase with great numbers on people who are not preparing themselves for these last days, but those who know their God will be strong and do exploits, says the Spirit of Grace.

You in the midst of those who are going: At times it looks like totally insane because of the things that will be coming upon the earth. You will be sitting in a place of safety, solidarity in your mind—a strength—a place that is so solidified by the strength of the Word and the power of the Spirit that you will look in utter amazement as people fall apart around you. There is still time. There is still time to redeem the time, says the Spirit of Grace.

Do not wait for the things that are coming upon the earth. Do not wait, says the Spirit of Grace. And again, He says the third time: Do not wait for the things that are coming upon the earth to get strong. It is not that you would not be able to catch up, but the labor to catch up and find peace in the midst of what is coming will be many, many, many times harder than it is present tense. If, if indeed you cannot run with the footman, how will you run and how will you contend with the horseman? says the Spirit of Grace. For there are coming waves by Satan for these last days that will shake the very earth, and there is coming judgment—things in which My hand is being taken off and which, because of the permission granted by the Church, I must take My hand off. And judgment is coming. Judgment is coming.

Again I say, judgment is coming, and many will be shaken and many will fear. Many will fear, but [for] those who will seek My face and those who will turn inward and those who will come into harmony to the best of their ability with My Word, then I will come, and I will bring an accentuation to their ability. I will bring a strengthening to their strength. In the mist of their weakness, I will bring My strength. Their strength will become My strength. Their strength has been weakness, but their strength will become strength in My strength, says the Spirit of Grace. And I will grow up people who have nursed [on] the bottle for many, many years. And for people who have set in the darkness and given many, many excuses for their flesh, I will grow them up overnight if they will allow Me, if they will lay down their excuses and if they will not point the finger at someone else. If they will take their eyes off of everything else and place them upon Me, says the Spirit of Grace.

The prototype, the Lamb, the One who stands stalwart in a place of your risen Savior, the Head of the Church, the King of Kings, and the Lord of Lords—set your eyes upon Him. Do not blame anyone of the past. Do not blame leaders in front of you. Do not blame elders in front of you nor pastors nor anyone else. Set your affections on things that are above, says the Spirit of Grace.

I must grow you up. I must grow you up. The time is short, says the Spirit of Grace. The time is short. It is short. Many things must happen. There is a harvest, and power will be part of that harvest. But great things that will shake the earth—it is of a necessity that you take authority over, over your children with prayer and supplication and fastings and speaking My Word.

Do not fear, little lambs, for I am with you. I am with you, but you must exercise the power that has been given to you. To that order of command upon Israel when the death Angel was passing, I said to them: You must cover—you must cover the doorpost and the lintel with the blood, for the death angel is coming in this night. For those who did and all that did, there was a covering. But know this: If they would have heard only and not done or did or followed commandments then just because [even though] they were Hebrews, the death angel would have killed them as well. This is an hour where knowing something is not good enough.

Knowing something is not good enough. Having heard or even having the ability to repeat a revelation is not good enough, says the Spirit of Grace. Coming to church is not good enough. It is an hour in which you must do what you know, says the Spirit of Grace.

So cover your children. Do not, do not, do not become distracted with trying to make a living or [trying to] set up your kingdom or find your happiness. I will fill your camp with happiness. You will eat your bread with the sweetness of peace, and you will lay down in harmony. But watch the homes, says the Spirit of Grace. Let no contention come between you and your wife or your husband. Guard all things as if a thief was standing at the door. Guard all things as if Satan himself stood at the door.

Do not go to bed angry. Let not the sun go down upon your wrath. Let no lie exist in your presence. If you have told lies one to another, then find the time to go back and make the honest appeal. Tell the truth. Tell the truth. Tell the truth, says the Spirit of Grace.

Purge yourself, for a great shaking is coming. Let nothing have an open door. Let nothing have an open door to your life, for you must cover your children, and you must cover your grandchildren, and you must cover those whom you love. You who have ears to hear, this will not be fear unto you, but it will be peace. You will live out your days with a covering of peace. You will end up strong, living life.

Galatians 2:20 I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me.

James 1:22 But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves.

Exodus 12:22-23 And ye shall take a bunch of hyssop, and dip it in the blood that is in the bason, and strike the lintel and the two side posts with the blood that is in the bason; and none of you shall go out at the door of his house until the morning. 23 For the LORD will pass through to smite the Egyptians; and when he seeth the blood upon the lintel, and on the two side posts, the LORD will pass over the door, and will not suffer the destroyer to come in unto your houses to smite you.
