

The Lord's Present-Day Speaking

PT170619B – Jun 19, 2017
The Nations Shall See Two Armies

The nations shall see two armies: one will be dressed for battle, and one will be dressed for ceremony. The army I am dressing for battle will go forth in Me, in My power, to endure and be sustained in Me. They will be dressed in who they are in My victory.

There will be those who will be dressed for ceremony, for they have not learned to be dressed in the full armor of My righteousness nor have they established on their head the helmet that is of faith and love. This group has not yet learned of the authority, dominion, and victory that are in Me. Victories they will have, but their victories will not be to the fullness of My army I am equipping, for teaching they have believed, which did not originate in Me, has limited how much of My truth they believe.

The nations will look askance at My battle-dressed army, though they shall reach forth for them in a time of need. This army will live in My whole armor, and through them, My glory shall be released in the nations as I use them to salvage, to restore, and to set free. I will walk in strength and power with those who have followed My Spirit out of the doctrines of men into the truth of My justice and vengeance and love.

Colossians 2:9,10 For in him dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily. 10 And ye are complete in him, which is the head of all principality and power:

John 15:7 If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you.

1 Corinthians 1:26,27 For ye see your calling, brethren, how that not many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, are called: 27 But God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and God hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty;