I Still Say Endure

Time, time, time—many have abhorred the time it has taken to get to where they are and to go where they are going in Me. My first words to you were “endurance” and “stand,” for without these and a strong foundation upon which to build, I would not be able to move you forward into greater understanding and strength concerning Kingdom things.

I still say endure. As good soldiers, endure the rigors of training and stand strong to be diligent and constant in Me. There is much to overcome that the enemy brings, and there are fleshly things which include wrong thinking. Let your transformation continue to be strong in Me as you are renewed to My manner of thinking and being—in all manner of living.

Soldiers equipped, soldiers strong, soldiers immovable in Me, ready at all times in ongoing training as we gear up for what I am bringing. I see readiness in the hearts, and I am pleased at the levels of trust I am seeing.

Time is not a factor with Me as you continue to give yourselves to Me in set aside times of fellowship and in daily living. I am at work connecting these two aspects of fellowship to bring about a continual awareness of My Presence in your very being with My hand in every facet of your life.

Your adversary is still speaking loudly of defeat and growling threats about many things, but rejoice and stand strong, for victory is the truth in Me. I love those who love Me and are fighting the good fight of faith, growing stronger continually. I love those whose hearts are yielding in ever greater degrees, for this gives Me much to work with. This is humility. I always give grace to the humble to press in for victory after victory.

Do not abhor the time, for it is a building I am building, and unless your house is built by Me, the labor is in vain. Endure the hardness in your training, for you are being equipped for a place of readiness in Me that equates to sweet intimacy, deep understanding, and great trust indeed.

You are being equipped in freedom, power, and authority, and to walk in the high places with Me requires fellowship beyond what the traditional Church sees. So do not abhor the time it has taken to reach into the truth for these things. You are not late. You are in Me, and I am pleased at what I am seeing—soldiers in training being increased in their equipping, graduated to the next level of readiness in Me.

Just ahead are the fountains of outpouring. Be strong in Me, for there is much to be had in intimacy. There is much to be had in understanding. There is much more to be had in Me, and this includes victory upon victory and many marvelous things.

Do not despise the time. Do not despise when steps seem small or unhurried. Unless I build the house, all of the labor is in vain. To give yourself to Me is to give yourself to change, to victory, faith, love, life, and peace. Give yourselves strongly to Me in your everyday living, for I am abounding toward you in all things.

Let your expectancy stand strong. You are not late, for you are in Me. Just ahead are the fountains of outpouring. See yourselves strong. See yourselves soldiers. See yourselves victory. See yourselves loved and whole in Me. I am very pleased.

2 Timothy 2:3 Thou therefore endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ.

Romans 12:2 And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God.

Psalms 127:1 A Song of degrees for Solomon. Except the LORD build the house, they labour in vain that build it: except the LORD keep the city, the watchman waketh but in vain.
