The Joy of Serving

He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says: The whole world is crying out and moaning for help. Nature groans for help, everything that has breath and thinks, even irrational animals are moaning—the earth is moaning, says the Lord. In this time of pain, I will manifest My glory to all who fellowship with Me enough so that My glory touches them, and they will carry My Presence for this time. The time is very close that, through them, I will manifest Myself to the world.

Be ready and fellowship with Me and I will distribute the tasks for each one. And they will know that I am doing so by the ability and the success accomplished in their functions.

There will be a joy as never known, and this will be My sign of who is at the center of My will: the “joy of serving” will be as glorious as it was with My saints of the past who went to death smiling because they understood that they were doing My will. And I will manifest Myself in these last days in all sincere ones, and they will feel My joy, and nothing will stop them because the force that drives them is the joy of My call.

I am the One who exalts and who puts down. I have in My hand death and life. I have in My hand honor and dishonor. I have law and grace in My hand, for I am the Lord, and all who hear Me will be My servants to adorn My bride and to prepare for My marriage. I seal these words. The end comes and the beginning. Whoever has My spirit will hear, amen.

Romans 8:22 For we know that the whole creation groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now.

Acts 8:5-7 Then Philip went down to the city of Samaria, and preached Christ unto them. 6 And the people with one accord gave heed unto those things which Philip spake, hearing and seeing the miracles which he did. 7 For unclean spirits, crying with loud voice, came out of many that were possessed with them: and many taken with palsies, and that were lame, were healed.

Psalms 75:7 But God is the judge: he putteth down one, and setteth up another.
