This Is Our Time of Fellowship

You have not come here by accident. You are not wasting your time. You are here because I want you here. There are many others who should be here, but they did not hear what I was saying to them. They did not allow Me to lead them, but you are here for a purpose. I am going to minister to you in a way that I will not be ministering to anyone else who is here.

I will be working with you all this week to help you redeem every moment you are here, not just during these services, but when you are away from these services. For I have already planned out divine encounters where you are going to meet people that you have never known, and these are people who are going to sow into your life.

They will be sowing My Word and My life into your life. Tune your ears to My voice all this week. Listen to what I say unto you. For some of you, you do not need to fast this week. You need to fellowship, because I am going to speak to you, through My servants, over meals. Do not think I am telling you it is wrong to fast, but some of you need family fellowship more than you realize.

I am going to touch your life, and if you will receive everything that I do, not just during the services but during the greeting times and during the times in between the services, even during the evenings, you are going to leave this week a changed person—not just temporarily changed but a permanent change that I have ordained from the foundation of the world.

This is our time of fellowship, says the Lord.

Proverbs 16:9 A man's heart deviseth his way: but the LORD directeth his steps.

Hebrews 10:25 Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching.

1 Thessalonians 5:11 Wherefore comfort yourselves together, and edify one another, even as also ye do.
