Trusting, Yielding, Believing—Ingredients of Victory

As your understanding and fellowship increase with Me, so do your levels of accountability. With increase comes another level of fight that the enemy will bring. But you will bring to him a fight that he has not been used to seeing.

I have made the way to uphold you, for there are times of refreshing in My Presence. This refreshing will invigorate you and energize you, not only against your adversary but against the pressure and strain at this level of accountability. For where you will walk in My glory, there are handles of the flesh yet to be dealt with.

You must decrease that I might increase, and the resulting change in our fellowship will be most pleasing to you and Me. Freely come to the waters of refreshing that are found in Me that I might sustain you and lift you as you walk through these days of greater accountability. My refreshing will carry you at all times, in all things, for it is a way I have given you to ride out your victories. I always have that which you need so that you may be refreshed in battle, equipped, stopping at nothing.

This place of My Presence where there is refreshing in Me is where I celebrate you and you celebrate Me and where fellowship takes place that is your victory. In My Presence is light, for I am Light. In My Presence is truth, for I am Truth. In My Presence is love, for I am Love. In My Presence you experience these things and more, and each time you come, I have what you need. Come to Me often to receive and come to be refreshed continually, for it is My pleasure to provide for you in all things.

Greater understanding with greater yielding leads to greater accountability is meant to be the natural progression of life in Me. This increased understanding and accountability empowered by yielding results in a walk of power where our fellowship goes beyond the limits of man's understanding into supernatural living in Me where My anointing is readily released to minister to many needs.

Many will be offended at various things in the days ahead, for they have begun to put greater priority on the way that is easy, slowly drifting away from Me. Your charge is to not be affected by those who are put off by how narrowly your focus is turned to Me. Your charge is to abide in Me and measure things carefully, for I see the hearts and where each walks concerning Me, and I will lead you accordingly.

You will see the rescue of many who have taken the wider path and have become offended at different things. Some of those will seem to be hard cases, but as they encounter My Presence and the truth I will be able to bring, the hardness will come off as they respond to Me, and you are the army I will use in these things.

I am preparing you for mighty days, and it is the day of walking about with Me in a greater fellowship in power and authority, for there is no other place in Me except "Forward!" into that which you believe and receive. Keep your eyes looking straight ahead, for where you are now in Me is the entrance into great and mighty things and clearing your paths of the enemy.

Yielding, believing, abiding, fighting, enduring with great shouts of victory, eyes looking ahead to things not fully seen but being embraced in the heart as true life in Me—these are the characteristics of the army I am leading. Forward we go and forward only indeed. Trusting, believing, and yielding—these are the ingredients of victory.

Luke 10:19 Behold, I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you.

Acts 3:19 Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord;

Matthew 13:23 But he that received seed into the good ground is he that heareth the word, and understandeth it; which also beareth fruit, and bringeth forth, some an hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty.
