Time to Put Aside Distractions

Now is not the time for having one foot in and one foot out. Now is not the time for distractions. Now is not the time for having your focus split in two different directions, but now is the time to put all your focus in on loving Me, on knowing Me, knowing My will and My Word for your life, knowing My plan and My purpose.

There are lines of unbelief that have been crossed in many where belief is starting to come on line. Many have already noticed this change. Many more will notice this change. If you could see where you were in believing that all things were possible, I would say to you, Do not stop and do not quit. Do not lose the flames that burn with intimacy, that burn with a passion to know Me, that burn with a fire that says, "I want to know You, God. I want to know You, God, with all that I am." For I will reward those who diligently seek Me. I will reward those who diligently give their time and their efforts and their energy to knowing Me, because you cannot get to know Me in vain.

Now is the time to put aside distractions. Many directions—many people's lives [the directions they] have been taking, I am warning them right now to get off that trail, because it will only distract them from fellowship with Me.

The way is getting narrower, and My instructions to you are getting narrower, so heed My voice when I speak and My promptings, and do not be taken away with worldly distractions—things that look good, that seem good that would cause you to lose time with Me. Now is the time to commit all that you are, because I have already committed all that I am to you. Respond to My love. Respond to My tugging.

Many gifts will come on line that people grow into. Many callings that have been needed in the Body of Christ will be walked in, stepped in because of the growth that happens in the spirit. Many in this room will start to be used beyond any measure they have ever experienced before. I say to you, when this starts to happen, be very, very careful not to lose sight of focus and fellowship with Me.

The mortification that I am taking you into, you must, you must find that place in Me where your heart loves Me and My heart loves back on you. For you must know that I love you. So find that intimate time. I beckon you and say, Come away. Look behind the lattice, through the window. Come away with Me, My beloved, My fair one.

Worship Me in the beauty of holiness. Worship Me in spirit and truth. Find that quiet place of intimacy in your heart with Me where I am allowed to pour My love into you beyond any measure that you have ever experienced before.

Yield to My promptings. Now is the time to set all your focus, all your energy on Me.

Song of Solomon 2:9,10 My beloved is like a roe or a young hart: behold, he standeth behind our wall, he looketh forth at the windows, shewing himself through the lattice. 10 My beloved spake, and said unto me, Rise up, my love, my fair one, and come away.

Hebrews 11:6 But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

John 4:23 But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him.
