My Wave of Glory Is Coming

There is a purpose in the “wave” that is now waxing and waning over the land—revealing and breathing, alive and abounding. Face the wave, ride the wave, find peace in the middle of it. Let it refresh and energize. Flow through its tunnel with focus. Do not look to the left or right.

There is settling in the wave. There is transformation in the wave. Behold the heavenly light, the splashing of victory, and the overcoming sense of delight. See it, behold it, become a living part of it, My people.

Rejoice, for the wave is about to appear in all the land. It makes its mark wherever it goes, and it cannot be denied. It is witnessed by all eyes. Be in awe of the wave—My wave of glory—it is coming.

Make ready for the wave, step into the wave. Rejoice, My people, the wave is beyond all you could ask or think—the fullness of My glory in the atmosphere. Come, come, come. Do not wait another day. Come into the wave and beyond. Worship Me, for I am worthy to be praised!
