The Stand for Holiness Is Now

There has been a call, and the stand for holiness is now. Now is the time to take the sword of light and pierce the heart of darkness. The days of confusion and deception are tumbling down, and My light shall shine in the midst of all the wickedness that the enemy has brought to seem as justifiable and rendered acceptable. The severed head of the enemy is being held high to bring truth into the land of fear and ignorance.

The cup that I have been filling in you and wanting to pour has started to tilt for the outpouring. There has been a strong strategic plan of destruction thrown out in front of the path I laid for you. The devil has come and has made every attempt to strip My truth and tell you who he says you are and to make you believe his words. But I am saying with all power: That plan has been destroyed.

I shall show you these things and fellowship with you in the true intimacy of who I am and in My love. It will not be confusing to you, for the truth that has been bought by the death and resurrection has been delivered by My Son and given freely to you. So run with all you have and come boldly with Me into the flames of holiness. I have longed for these days.
