Let It Go: Forgive

I am speaking to many hearts to respond to My grace to forgive—to let go, to respond to that which I have been working in you—to bless, to quit holding on to what was done to you but start holding on to what I have done for you. Hold on to what I have given you. For you have said, “I’ve let it go, Lord. I have let it go. I have forgiven.” But I know your heart, and I am saying you haven’t, so let it go.

Don’t hold on to the hurt that was done. Hold on to My grace which allows you to let go. Forgive. Even as I say this, a wall comes up [in some] that says, “But I have.” And I am telling you, let the wall crumble and forgive. Let it go. Move on with Me, for unforgiveness will squander the very life that I have for you. Let go, and you will be able to breathe again—you will experience joy again. You will experience life again. Forgive.

Ephesians 4:31,32 Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice: 32 And be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you.

Hebrews 4:15,16 For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin. 16 Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need.

Colossians 3:12, 13 Put on therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, bowels of mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, longsuffering; 13 Forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man have a quarrel against any: even as Christ forgave you, so also do ye.
