Do Not Let Sin Deceive You—Walk Away

To many, I will say, who have been playing with sin: Put the snake down, because it will bite you and kill you. Sin will always, when it is full grown, will always bring forth death—always. Walk away. For you keep saying, “Lord, I will do it next week; I will do it tomorrow; I will do it next month,” but I tell you: Do not let sin deceive you, and the devil and what he’s doing, because he works with deception to get you to think that you can handle it. And the very second that you think that you can handle it, he has you ensnared, and he is going in for the kill. So listen to Me: Let it go. Walk away.

Listen to Me: Be obedient to your conscience, for I have convicted you and convicted you and convicted you and reminded you and reminded you and reminded you, and I have spoken to you. And I am reminding you, with an urgency in this hour, for you to be obedient.

So listen, because sin will bring forth death. It will kill. But it doesn’t have to. Listen to Me. Do not put it off. Be obedient. Let it go.

Ephesians 4:22-24 That ye put off concerning the former conversation the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts; 23 And be renewed in the spirit of your mind; 24 And that ye put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness.

James 1:14-17 But every man is tempted, when he is drawn away of his own lust, and enticed. 15 Then when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin: and sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death. 16 Do not err, my beloved brethren. 17 Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning.
