Praise—A Path for My Glory

As your praise has been rising up from the place where you are, it has been coming before My throne, and I release My glory, and it follows the path of that praise back to that place where you are. And I would have you know that My glory is in that room with you this very moment. I would have you know that My glory is there.

Do not look for physical sensations. Do not look for clouds. Do not look for shining lights, but look within, because that is where My glory is manifesting to bring about change according to My will for your life. And know that whenever you lift up your voice and begin to praise Me, you are creating a path for My glory to reach down to wherever you are. And I will touch you again and again and again and again. I will work in you to will and to do of My good pleasure, says the Lord.

Philippians 2:12,13 Wherefore, my beloved, as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling. 13 For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure.

Hebrews 11:6 But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.
