

The Lord's Present-Day Speaking

Wait in Stillness With Me

Oh, the joy I have when the effort is made to wait in stillness with Me. This is part of the mortification process, because all thoughts, all questions and reasonings, all disturbances in the soul must be settled—stilled—as you draw near to let your mind be in one accord with Me.

If I do not speak, then know it is My good pleasure just to have you with Me in the stillness of you and Me. Oh, the joy I have when My own choose to be still and to wait on Me. Much is accomplished in being still with Me. Much is accomplished every time you draw near to Me. You never leave without Me doing something on your behalf when you open your heart to be with Me.

Great is My joy when a child of Mine decides to be still and just be with Me.

Psalms 46:10 Be still, and know that I am God: I will be exalted among the heathen, I will be exalted in the earth.

Hebrews 11:6 But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

Isaiah 40:29-31 He giveth power to the faint; and to them that have no might he increaseth strength. 30 Even the youths shall faint and be weary, and the young men shall utterly fall: 31 But they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint.
