Endurance Is My Grace Indeed

Know with certainty that the press of the flesh is not a fight that is fought in your own strength, for it is by My grace that you make it all the way through each battle. I did not design you at your beginning to walk alone. Your beginning was in Me, and all that you do is in Me. I am the ever-available Help you need, available at all times for all things.

These days of pressing beyond the bands of the flesh are days to be won with Me in the place of prayer, the prayer that is supplied by My Spirit, for I know the weak places in each life, and I know the strong places, and as you continue in the grace of determination, the weak places will become stronger than the resistance that is the flesh, and the strong places become even stronger. Together, you and Me, we will walk this out.

Many give too much credence to the strength the flesh presents in its resistance to the walk of the spirit, but in Me is the overcoming strength you need. Stay in Me, stay in the place of prayer where I come alongside you and walk you beyond the place of weakness into the place of strength—from weakness into grace, from reasonings into understanding, where your walk makes that turn from flesh to spirit.

Stay, stay, stay in the place of prayer, and as time is made available, give more time for you and Me. These are the days of overcoming many things, but don't look to the tendencies of the flesh and try to believe this, look to My truth that sustains you, the truth that endurance is the necessary thing. Continue to endure and make it past the hard places, staying in the place of prayer, the place where your faith is built up in Me, where mountains are moved by the grace you receive, and where understandings are received concerning your life in fellowship with Me.

Grace, grace, grace to the mountains, and through the strength that is in Me, you will stand in the high places of victory. Be encouraged, your victory is in Me, and endurance is the way of many, many victories, for endurance is My grace indeed. Stay sober, stay alert, and build yourself up on your most holy faith into greater places in Me, for I have places waiting for you to enter into with Me in which you will be most pleased. Stay the course and be attentive to My wooings. These are the days of receiving victories.

Romans 8:26,27 Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for we know not what we should pray for as we ought: but the Spirit itself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered. 27 And he that searcheth the hearts knoweth what is the mind of the Spirit, because he maketh intercession for the saints according to the will of God.
