Hope in What I Have Done for You

I have affirmed you. I have begotten you. I have made you. You are in the image of My Son. You are set free from sin. You are whom I say you are.

I have affirmed you. Behold the life of Christ that is at hand. Partake of what I have made you to be. Receive what is given freely to you but what cost Me dearly, for by My grace I have made you sons and daughters. And let no lie redefine or corrupt the image of how I see you, for how I see you is not the problem—how you see yourselves is what limits My work in your life. For without hope there is nothing for faith to give substance to, and if you have no hope in what I have done for you, then faith cannot give substance to it. But I have affirmed you, I have begotten you and I see you as My sons and daughters.

Behold the life of Christ. It is at hand for you today. Receive freely because I paid a price for you to have it. Don't let that price be in vain for I have paid for the victory, and you are more than overcomers if you continue in My Word.

Hebrews 11:1 Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen.

Colossians 3:10 And have put on the new man, which is renewed in knowledge after the image of him that created him:

1 John 5:4,5 For whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith. 5 Who is he that overcometh the world, but he that believeth that Jesus is the Son of God?
