

The Lord's Present-Day Speaking

I Am Calling for Disciples

Many are the ways in which I speak to My people, for I desire all to hear Me, all to know Me. Therefore, I present Myself—My mind, My heart, My will—in various ways so that as many who will hear may hear Me.

It is not that I do not speak, for I do. I never fail to do My part, but it is that men choose other things and turn from what they have heard or resist even the moment of My speaking. Hear. Hear. Have an ear to hear and be those who yield to these things and follow Me, for whoever will deny himself and follow Me, that one is My disciple.

I am calling for disciples. I am calling for those whose hearts will burn for Me. Only in our fellowship do you move forward in Me, for without Me, you can do nothing. Find the place of intimacy. Find the place of yielding and the willingness to follow Me—take time with Me.

Many have heard My call but have resisted My calling, choosing the world, the flesh, and the offerings of these things. Deny yourself by first making time with Me. You are not late if you take heed to this calling. You will find My grace is sufficient, and I am who and what you need. Be in step with Me.

Hear with ears that hear, and be on time and follow Me. For there is much ahead, and I desire to fellowship with you all the way into that which is waiting for you in Me. Do not be as those who do not hear, but hear these things—yield to what you are hearing. Come and follow Me. Dearly beloved, make time with Me.

Revelation 3:22 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

John 15:5 I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing.

1 Chronicles 16:11 Seek the Lord and his strength, seek his face continually.
