I Am the Rest for My People

Many take a respite, a break from the battle, when in truth I am the Lord of the battle, so the perfect place to be is close to Me. The enemy fools and tricks My beloved into thinking that what they need is a break, a rest, but I am the Rest for My people. In Me is a rest and a refreshing that is superior to natural means and that will always bring My beloved to a higher place in Me. The rest and the break the enemy tricks with is the arm of the flesh, the work of the soul, it is weakness that he puts pressure on to draw My beloved away from that which they need, which is Me.

I am calling out to those who will hear to come to the rest that is refreshing. Come, so that I am the Rest you seek, the One who is your break from the battle, a hiding place from storms, and peace when the soul is pressured. In My Presence I bring that which you need from Me. For many, this is the turn that is needed, a turning to Me, to My Presence where there is strength for weariness, refreshing for the soul, and rejuvenation that brings new strength and energy.

Turn to Me in the times of weakness and in those pressing times in life. Turn to Me when your soul is clamoring for a break from pressure, clamoring for rest, clamoring for relief. Mark those times as times to give yourself over to Me, for this is the change needed, to turn to Me in all things. For some, this turn will bring about the change they have been crying out to Me for. This one change will bring about the strength that many have been asking Me for, that which their walk with Me has needed.

Come to where the anointing is, come to My Presence and receive that which is needed, not only to receive a break from the battle but to leave from the time you spend with Me lifted higher, walking stronger than when you first turned to Me. This is My help for those who have been calling out to Me for more strength in their walk with Me, for I am the Strength you are needing, and I am the finest break from the battle and the best refreshing anyone could ever receive. Come and receive the true rest you are needing, and find the break from the battle that you truly need. I am faithful in all things.

1 Corinthians 15:57 But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.
