Finish Your Race

For many years I have told this body not to veer to the left or to the right but to remain laser focused. I have done this through many different voices at many different times. I have told you that the move you are called to cannot be accomplished or even understood [in your own strength] and that it must be done completely in the Spirit. Yet even now, after many years of preparation, some are being seduced and deceived into seeking side quests. Many of these side quests are important and urgent. Yet for all the urgency, they are not your primary quest. I am preparing others you do not know for these things.

Do you remember why you are here at this place at this time? This place and this time is an appointed season to sow into the Spirit, to move far enough into God to produce a supernatural move in a religious city. This time is a sowing into the call of this body, a preparation for healings, miracles, and bringing millions into the Kingdom. Side quests cannot do this. Do not allow yourself to be deceived and distracted in this season. Finish your race. Do not leave your race and jump into another that I have not called you to.

Remember the parable of the ten virgins; remember that only five were prepared. This is an appointed season of preparation for the impossible. Will you be ready or will you allow yourself to become distracted to the point where you do not complete your race?

Who among you in this place do not yearn, and often weep, because of the things you cannot yet be used for? Who among you do not feel the stabbing pain when you see a child with an impossible ailment? Who among you has been called to do what is impossible to the world and even the Church?

Many are called but few are chosen. The chosen do not divert from the mission they are on, even if they see great needs. Pray, intercede, and know that there is great power for those who obey Me in this season. Difficult things, even impossible things, will seem easy if you truly use this provided season. Do not lose your focus. You were created for a time such as this. There is a place where the impossible is ordinary. Do not miss this opportunity.

Hebrews 12:1,2 Therefore we also, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which so easily ensnares us, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, 2 looking unto Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith, who for the joy that was set before Him endured the cross, despising the shame, and has sat down at the right hand of the throne of God.

2 Timothy 2:4,5 No one engaged in warfare entangles himself with the affairs of this life, that he may please him who enlisted him as a soldier. 5 And also if anyone competes in athletics, he is not crowned unless he competes according to the rules.

Philippians 3:14 I press toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus.
