Come to the Next Place of My Spirit

He wants you to know that He is pleased with you. He is pleased with your faithfulness. He is pleased with your efforts; the struggles are not in vain. The difficulties that you have been through, it is not for no reason—it is not a waste of time. And while He didn't bring the struggle, He didn't bring the difficulty or the hardships into our lives, He has used that to prove us. And He is pleased with our faithfulness today.

What's in my heart this morning is: we've brought Him pleasure. He is pleased with the Prayer Center, the people of the Prayer Center, with the work of the Prayer Center. He is pleased with those who have been faithful. He says for those who have struggled, I am not displeased; I am not angry; I am not disappointed, but I continue to beckon you, call you. Come unto Me.

Come to the next place of My Spirit. Receive of Me and walk close and see that I have for you something far greater than anything you could accomplish in your own strength or in your own time. So, as you give your life to Me, as give your time to Me, as you give your efforts unto Me, you will see that I will bring My grace, and I will multiply those efforts with My power and My anointing. And you will see that by My Spirit, you will be able to accomplish the things that you only dreamed of and thought could never come to pass.

So, to those who have been faithful: continue; be faithful. To those who have struggled and those who have hit obstacles: yield yourself to Me. Give up your own fleshly efforts and allow Me by My Spirit to help you. You will see that you too can walk in the freedom and the anointing that I provide for those who are faithful in Me.

Hebrews 11:6 But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

Matthew 11:28-30 Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. 29 Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls. 30 For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

1 Chronicles 16:11 Seek the Lord and his strength, seek his face continually.
