The Fellowship Is the Necessity

The need for the press has not changed nor has the need for endurance, for you are made to endure in Me. And though there are pressures now and pressures to slow down, to stop, to rest, what will it be like in the days ahead? For the days ahead will require a level of endurance that you, My army, are being trained for and are attaining to.

Though fires are burning and pressure comes from different directions, I am the Strength and the One who quickens My army both individually and corporately. Through leaning into Me purposefully, you are becoming stronger as I bring the quickening necessary to run with Me.

Be still and know that the greatest place is in My Presence, for in no other place can you receive what is needed for the days you are heading into. The capacity for abiding and dwelling, for remaining and lingering are being enlarged as you stay in the press of greatly increasing in Me. Be still and trust, for I am establishing a steadfastness in My army, and though the winds blow and storms come, My army shall stand.

On the horizon change can be seen, but stay the course of giving yourselves to Me, for only in Me, only on this path of fellowship, do desires come to pass that originate in Me. Though the plans of man can be many and the plans of man can seem pressing indeed, for that which you are catching glimpses of on the horizon, there is a birthing required, a renewing still to take place, and a transformation to complete that only comes on this course of giving yourselves diligently and purposefully to Me.

The fellowship is the necessity, and it is this fellowship, individually and corporately, that the enemy endeavors to stop. There must still be a quieting beyond the quieting that has been attained to. There must still be a rest beyond the rest that has been received. There must still be a passion and a fervency—strengths that cannot be breached by the adversary. And there must continually be the foundation of times in My Presence individually, where I come exactly and supernaturally with what each one needs—an imparting and an infilling that are supernatural indeed. Come to Me continually to be filled with more of Me.

I do not change, but your need for Me is changing, for what I am depending on you for as My army requires an increase in what you are receiving and an even greater fellowship with Me. These are good days to be in, for the greater your reach into fellowship with Me, the greater your days shall be, no matter the circumstances about you that you see. I do not change. Let your change be great through your fellowship with Me, for on you I am depending, and in you I confidently believe.
