The Race You Run Is Changing

It is a time of change, of transitioning, for those who have been earnest in their seeking, those who are determined to come for more of Me. I am moving forward those who are pressing for more of Me. I am building the corporate body by building individually a people fitly joined in Me—not one above another, but a people following Me into a supernatural fit and joining.

Humility is key as is the pace that is run—a pace that is a press, a push, a determined run into more in Me. The time I ask to be given to Me is utmost in all things, for unless one takes time with Me to receive of My infillings, My plans, My purposes, My mind and heart on things, it will only be the works of man, and it is the spirit walk that I seek.

Those who are reaching for more through the authority of your choices made toward Me, transition is coming and change is working. Even though I have joined one to another and have been building bonds within My army, each one's course individually is the heart of My workings, bringing forth each one into a placing, a fit—My purpose working within My Body.

In this race that is set before you, I am aligning, adjusting, and fitting together individuals according to what I need. You are being fitly joined together from the purposes that are in Me. As I work by My Spirit in My army, I am moving a people forward into more refined positionings. This refining requires the continued discipline of prioritizing for much more of Me. You are set on a course of running, being steady, enduring, and gaining strengths in Me, no matter the transitioning and shifts and changes that you see, for those things are in My hand, in your hand is to follow Me.

One man's course does not determine another's, even though each one's course is part of corporate functionality, for you are a unit, a remnant being trained in alliances and great unity. And I have been training you to set your eyes not on a man but on My Spirit who leads. Being purposed, greatly focused, and being inconvenienced is part of training even as it is a part of an enduring walk with Me. My soldiers are learning to follow the bends on the course, the turns on the path, by simply keeping the eyes and heart fastened on Me. It is the walk of the spirit, and those who are dedicated are moving up higher in these things.

The race you run is changing, transitioning, even though the course remains of your individual fellowship with Me, for this is your source, the headwaters from which all else proceeds. For those whose training is laser focus, whose key word is endurance, the change, the transition, the aligning and realigning will not be unsettling but will be recognized as My Hand moving.

Understand that not all will understand the flow of My Spirit in the changes, in the transitions I bring. These times you are in will not be easy for those who are still walking the path but not running ahead with Me. I can help those who are troubled as they lean on Me, but your charge is always laser focus, keeping your eyes on Me. Be steady, be kind, and keep pointing others to Me while you stay very focused on My Spirit and His leading, for He knows and foresees all things. It is to My army I am speaking, for you have the witness within you of these things.

Ephesians 3:20,21 Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us, 21 Unto him be glory in the church by Christ Jesus throughout all ages, world without end. Amen.

Romans 12:2 And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God.

Philippians 3:12 Not as though I had already attained, either were already perfect: but I follow after, if that I may apprehend that for which also I am apprehended of Christ Jesus.
