

The Lord's Present-Day Speaking

There Is Greater Accountability Coming

There is a greater accountability coming, and many will not make it into the part which they desire until they let go of the wandering, the compromising, and take heed to what My Spirit is speaking.

Many have heard My Spirit, and it is as if they have turned away from His speaking. My mercy abounds and My arms are wide open, for I desire each one to come, to truly know Me. But there is an accountability that one must rise to in order to have what is desired in Me. The way is not too hard, but it is narrow and narrowing.

There are difficulties for those who are not coming to My Presence where there is grace to overcome and to stay close to Me. In My Presence is fullness of joy, and it is where My goodness and glory are apparent to those who spend time with Me. There is no power or might in the strength of man to overcome, for life in Me is a fellowship, and co-laboring with My Spirit is necessary to get past obstacles that prohibit the entrance into more and more of Me.

Love is in this accountability, for there are those who still bite and devour though they belong to Me. All the way in is what I have been asking, all the way in into more and more of Me. It is the participation in all the keys of My Spirit that I have been asking, and in this is the intimacy that is required to walk beyond current places into new places and depths in Me. There is an accountability coming to those who have not taken heed to the narrowing, the way in which My Spirit leads.

Those who desire to follow Me but are still meandering are being nudged and wooed by Me, and there is a calling by My Spirit to come out from the world's ways to find true joy, true life, and true peace. Only in yielding to My Spirit is there the power to overcome and follow Me.

I am calling for those who are drifting, soldiers who enlisted with Me, to heed My call, to bow the heart and follow Me. As the call is heeded, as hearts begin to bow, your days on Earth will become Heavenly, even in the midst of darkness and great uncertainty. My army is always open to those who rely on Me, but in My army there is accountability and to My Spirit each soldier must take heed, but in Me there is strength for all things. Come, follow Me.
