

The Lord's Present-Day Speaking

Pray and Prepare

Weep and mourn but intercede, says the Lord. See the mountains covered with snow that once looked so majestic, so beautiful. Feel the sun getting hotter and hotter and watch the beautiful white snow melt and run down the mountainside. The snow was an illusion just as their faith was, for the hot sun melts away their substance—they never grew roots. And just like those who cheered Jesus on with palm branches as He entered Jerusalem, they were gone as He hung on the Cross in the hot, searing sun. Oh Jerusalem, oh Jerusalem, how often I longed to gather you under My wings, but you would not.

So many shallow words from so many shallow-ground churches that grew up rapidly like flowers in a desert rain. Oh America, oh America, so much shallow word has been planted in shallow ground that now, as the sun comes, much melts away. There have been so few with the courage or skill to teach the babies how to grow roots. The sun comes now and it comes stronger still as the water rolls down the mountains. Weep and mourn but pray that those who can be saved will. Intercede that whatever small roots have grown will hold. The time for My hidden ones to be invisible is almost over. Pray and prepare as if the day is tomorrow.

Matthew 13:4-6 And when he sowed, some seeds fell by the way side, and the fowls came and devoured them up: 5 Some fell upon stony places, where they had not much earth: and forthwith they sprung up, because they had no deepness of earth: 6 And when the sun was up, they were scorched; and because they had no root, they withered away.

Matthew 23:37 O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killest the prophets, and stonest them which are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not!
