In the Quiet Times, I Am Working

Do not miss what I am doing says, the Lord, in the quiet times and in the things that seem insignificant. Do not miss what I am doing, for I am working in the realms of the Spirit and bringing forth supernatural things. Even in a time like this where things are quiet around you and where there is no apparent manifestations [of the Spirit], realize that I am working, and I will work on the inner man in a way that oftentimes cannot be seen.

If you will allow Me and you will wait on Me, I will come, and you can expect that I am doing a work even when it does not feel like it. Even when it does not look like it, even when you cannot see it, even when you cannot feel it, even when you cannot hear it, even though those around you will tell you nothing is happening, understand that as you wait on Me, I am coming with My Spirit, and I come to fellowship with you. And there is no man who has ever been with Me who has regretted the time that he has spent. So trust Me. It is worth it to wait in My Presence.

The outer man desires a show, and the outer man desires to see something that would indicate that there has been a change, but if you will wait on Me, you will see that I will come in such a way that even the outer man one day will have to say, “This is not what I expected.” But you will see that which I will bring from out of that time of fellowship will sustain you in the days ahead.

For in the quiet times and in the times that are even silent in My Presence, I am working. And I am providing nourishment to you, a peace—a peace that passes all understanding—that you will be able to draw upon in the days of trouble. You will be able to draw from that place where you waited with Me so that I can bring it up out of your spirit in the days of darkness, the days of difficulty.

For as you know and as you have been told already, there is darkness coming, but know that I will keep you. I will keep you in My peace, and I will provide for you wisdom in the darkest hours so that you will be able to shine even brighter. And you will see that My Church will arise, those whom I have called and those whom I have chosen and those who have heard, they will arise even in the midst of darkness and shine even brighter, even brighter. So stay with Me. Come away with Me. Schedule even more time to be in My Presence. In times of prayer, in times of waiting, in times of fasting—come be with Me.
