Humility Is Yieldedness

There is, says the Lord, a humility that comes not precipitated by the flesh or the emotions or even the actions or demeanor of the body or the facial expressions. It is an inward place of the heart, says the Spirit of Grace. It is a place of bowing the knee of the heart. The pretense seen of men has nothing to do with this place. It is a yieldedness to My instruction.

My definition of humility is a yieldedness to My instruction, to be obedient in the things that I have told you to do and instructed you to do, says the Spirit of the Lord. So, with heart that is open, as best as you can, ask for more of this. For the further you go, the more you will be engaged in this place of bowing the knee of your heart to Me, says the Spirit of the Lord. And I will turn your thirty into sixty, and I will turn your sixty into seventy and eighty and ninety and a hundred-fold before this life is over. You will enjoy, because you continued to hear instruction and follow instruction and be obedient unto the things in which I said, says the Spirit of Grace.

Proverbs 8:33 Hear instruction, and be wise, and refuse it not.

Proverbs 23:26 My son, give me thine heart, and let thine eyes observe my ways.
