

December 2020

Dear Friend,

In the midst of life right now, and in the midst of the Christmas season and new year beginnings, we encourage you to hold onto these letters you receive with their present-day speaking and pick them up each day as if they are newly sent, as if the Lord is right there with you—reading with you and praying with you, enjoying being with you—because He is.

As you spend time with the Lord, meditating on these words and on His Word, He is there ready to speak to your heart each day. He will point out things to you in these words that He wants to encourage you by. He will remind you of His great love for you and strengthen you with His promises and instructions. He will show you things He needs for you to hold onto in faith for this season.

God has wisdom and grace for us each and every day as we enter into His Presence and yield our heart to Him and take the time to read and meditate on His words. Our Father wants to minister to us personally, and He especially loves to do so in the times we spend with Him in fellowship reading and meditating on what He has said.

How important it is to spend time with God each day, for nothing and no one is to us who God is. And in these times we are in, it is of great importance to keep our eyes fixed on Him and to remain open to receiving from Him, regardless of what is happening in the world. He is our Hope and Light and Healer and Redeemer; He is our Wisdom and Answer at all times. Let's give Him praises continually.

When the enemy tries to tell us there is no hope or that we aren't "measuring up," we tell him to "Shut up!" and then we praise and thank our Heavenly Father that we are loved by Him every moment of every day because we belong to Him and our story in Him isn't even close to being over.

Merry Christmas to you and to all those you love and pray for! We pray that you have a blessed Christmastime full of God's Presence, love, and grace. We love you!

Present-Day Speaking 'Be Filled With Hope'

1. It Is My Hope You Are Receiving

I love you dearly, and I have made the way for you to enter into much more in Me. I am leading you forth into greater intimacy, strength, and understanding. Be filled with hope continually, for it is My hope you are receiving, and your faith will give substance to many, many things.

Hebrews 11:1 Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen.

2. The Path to the Miracle

Hear what the Spirit would say: Would I leave you in a fight to go from where your faith does not believe to where your faith does based on My Word, where you emerge victorious over your emotions and over circumstances and receiving it into your heart that it is done—why wouldn't I give you keys along the way? Why wouldn't I give you a hand up along the way?

The pathway to the answer to your prayer is just as powerful and final and settled as the answer and the miracle itself. And you who learn to put one foot in front of the other and walk in the path I have laid for you to the miracle find out that I have dealt with the emotions along the way and am part of your strength in emotions even before you see the manifestation of that which you are believing for.

Romans 4:19-21 And not being weak in faith, he did not consider his own body, already dead (since he was about a hundred years old), and the deadness of Sarah's womb. He did not waver at the promise of God through unbelief, but was strengthened in faith, giving glory to God, and being fully convinced that what He had promised He was also able to perform.

3. I Will Give You Rest

Be not despaired, for the enemy would desire to encompass, to overshadow with darkness, and to introduce reasonings and systems of thoughts that would captivate you with a stronghold where you never would put one foot in front of the other and taste to see that I am good. Come unto Me, you who are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. You shall find rest for your souls. My burden is easy. My yoke is light. Learn of Me, says the Spirit of Grace. Learn of Me. My yoke is easy. My burden is light. Learn of Me.

Matthew 11:28 Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

4. Things WILL Change

Doubt not with your heart and receive. Have I not given you My Spirit? Has He not come to lead and to guide you into all truth? For is it not His active Presence in you that brings you from a heart that cannot believe to a heart that can? Therefore, doubt not within yourselves but determine within yourself that these things will not remain the same, and they WILL change, says the Lord. For the Holy Spirit will teach you to look in the place where I stand in your life—not where you stand or where you came from, but where I presently stand within your life.

John 16:13-15 However, when He, the Spirit of truth, has come, He will guide you into all truth; for He will not speak on His own authority, but whatever He hears He will speak; and He will tell you things to come. He will glorify Me, for He will take of what is Mine and declare it to you. All things that the Father has are Mine. Therefore I said that He will take of Mine and declare it to you.

5. Nothing Is Hopeless

If the enemy says there is no hope, announce your standing in the God of All Hope. Announce to hopelessness that with your God, nothing is hopeless, and all things are possible. Your thoughts must agree with My thoughts. If a thought is in opposition to My mind and My ways, overcome the enemy's lies with truth—My Word is truth.

John 17:17 Sanctify them by Your truth. Your word is truth.

6. The Place Called Done

Hear, carefully, the words of My Son: All things are possible because I can do all things. All things are possible to him that believes. Am I limited—what do you believe? Spend time with My Spirit and He will bring you from where you are to where I am. You will see from My perspective, and that is the place called “Done.”

Luke 1:36,37 Now indeed, Elizabeth your relative has also conceived a son in her old age; and this is now the sixth month for her who was called barren. For with God nothing will be impossible.

7. The Path of Dreams Brought to Life

The path I have set before you is not a path of broken dreams. It is not a path of unanswered questions and repeated failures like some have seen. The path I have set before you is a path of answered questions and dreams brought to life. It is a path of finding success in Me and the manifestation of these things.

Lift up your eyes and look to Me. Lift up your eyes and look at the truth that you see—My Word is truth. Nothing is impossible for Me.

I can restore all things. I can restore a life to such a degree that a life once broken will be able to look around and see no evidence of these things. All that you need is found in Me, and all that I need from you is for you to allow My Spirit to build you up in Me. I am truly the Answer to all things. Come and find yourself in Me. You will be most pleased at the life you find in Me.

Jeremiah 29:11 For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, says the Lord, thoughts of peace and not of evil, to give you a future and a hope.
