A Place of Worship, of Fellowship, of Intimacy

Some will resist stepping into this new place I have created for you. Some will hold on to knowledge as their strength. Some will hold on to works as their strength. But, you, I am calling [you] forward into this place—a place of worship, of fellowship, of intimacy.

Make up your mind today to leave all behind and come in to Me. Give Me your will. Give Me your life. Give Me your heart and step across that line and you will find who I really am, for you do not know who I really am yet, but I will show it to you.

Come closer. Come closer.

I am hearing this, and it is like a warning. It's saying that those who are resisting what He is doing, what He wants to do in you, will come out and attack you and try to stop you from crossing that line and try to hold you back with those things of knowledge and self-centeredness and [self-]will. Leave them, He is saying. I need you to cross this line and leave them if they won't come. Leave them. You come closer.

This place He has created for us to go to—there is such a purity in this place that He wants us to go to. It's a place where man's agenda cannot be.

And many of you are ready to go into this place, and some will try, but their agenda will stop them because they don't want to give it up yet. But many of you are ready to come, and I am ready to move you forward because, behind you, many, many—there is a circle that I am seeing. It is a large circle of a place of intimacy, a place of purity, a place of God relating to you, to His children, without men's agenda. And I see that a group is walking into it, and as you walk into this circle, your agenda falls off of you. You walk in, but those who have an agenda, a personal agenda, they can't get into this circle without letting go of the agenda, and it is stopping them.

And so this circle is surrounded by people who appear to know God, but they don't, and they can't get in. Yet the circle is filling and filling and there are many immature Christians who are following this group into this circle who don't know much about God, but they will follow us right into the circle where they will experience a purity of His love without man's agenda in between to hijack it.

And He is speaking to us here today and [to] whoever is part of this message: I am asking you to come closer, to come closer because you are creating a trail for babies to come and skip all those years of religion and just bask and grow, knowing only My love.

This is a separation. This is a separation.

This circle that I see, it is a playground for God's children to enjoy His love, and it is protected. This is a dangerous place for some people. It is also a place of judgment in there, and those are the people who come in or try to come in with agendas. But for those of you who will just run into His Presence, miracles flow easy in this place. This is a place where brokenness is healed.
