

The Lord's Present-Day Speaking “Yield to the Fervency of the Hour”

Gather Your Wealth in Me

How many have set their affections on things above and not on things of this earth? How many? Where do your affections lie? Are your affections on the things of this earth, or on gaining your full inheritance in Me?

I am looking for stewards of the inheritance that is from above. I am looking for stewards of their life in Me and our relationship. This is true stewardship. Sadly, much of the Church has taught that I am mostly interested in your prosperity and the gathering of earthly things. They have taught that if you do not have the things of this earth you are not truly following Me and have no success in Me. Success is NOT earthly things. Success is gathering your wealth in Me—gathering your inheritance in Me and the fullness of it. Your life in Me and our fellowship—that is your wealth, your inheritance. Your wealth is in Me.

I love those who love Me and I love those who don't know Me. I am Love, but oh, the joy in this Father's heart to be able to help My family gather their inheritance in Me and to walk in it. That is a joy to My heart. That is joy.

My joy is your life in Me. My joy is your fellowship with Me. If you had no earthly treasures, would you still love Me? If you had no earthly treasures, would you still follow Me? If you had no earthly treasures, would you obey Me? To those who have allowed themselves to be abased on My behalf, I know the journey is often difficult and not always easy. Know that your fellowship with Me in the journey is joyful to Me, and I know that to you it is fulfilling. How pleasing to Me, how pleasing.

I am looking for those who will give up all to follow Me. I am looking for those who will lay down their lives to such a degree that no matter what, they will walk with Me. My priority is your wealth in Me. My priority is building a tower out of your life in Me and your fellowship with Me. This cannot be purchased with earthly treasures. I am building unshakeable “towers” that will stand strong and stay strong in Me, in all things. This is not found in earthly treasure. I am building unshakable “structures” who will be wise in Me and who I can trust in the things I set before them in Me. If I can give you the wealth that is your life in Me, together we can do many things. This cannot be purchased by the pursuit of earthly treasure. This can only be found in the pursuit of the One who is your treasure.

Those who are finding themselves abased in Me will abound in all things in Me, for to walk in fellowship with Me and to know Me intimately is to abound in all things. Your riches are not your suffering, your riches are the wealth you are gaining in your life in Me. There is no lack to the one who has Me. There is no lack to those who know Me, for I AM all you need. There is no lack to the one who has built his life on the treasures found in Me. There is no lack to the one who is gathering his inheritance in Me.

Those who have set their affections on the things of this earth will scoff, but I do not scoff. I joy in the grace you are receiving to follow after Me. Follow after Me and continue to let My Spirit walk you out of the things of this earth that you may walk into the things that are above. Follow after Me and continue to let My Spirit walk you out of the mind that is not of Me into the mind that is in Christ. Follow after My Spirit in all things and you will gain all that is in Me. This is the true wealth—the fullness of life that is in Me. The ones who are gathering this wealth give Me what I need to walk them into their individual paths in Me. This is wealth indeed. Stay on course and you will each see what, at this point, you would not believe. Gather your wealth in Me.

The Year Where We Sell Out to Him

What I heard this afternoon in prayer: This year coming up is the year where we sell out to Him.

There is going to be great division in the church, and I am talking about The Prayer Center. With good intentions, but great warfare, some will stay; some will go. And I am telling you, that's okay.

It's the year of selling out to Him. Whatever His will is, I don't live unto myself anymore.

Be Not Ignorant of the Devices of the Enemy

Be not ignorant of the devices of the enemy, says the Spirit of Grace, for from time to time, he stands in your presence only because you give him the place without knowing the symptoms and the wiles and the manner of attack. Then many of you go down the road of defeat, never bothering to even look back. You say within your heart—for the Lord God is He who tries the reins of your heart—“I have tried my best. I have done all that I know to do.” Many of you who say this, you have not let Me finish My work by My Spirit of transformation in your life. You have not allowed Me to bring you through. For when I train you for war, I will blow the trumpet and I will bring you through the door.

With the sessions that I will give you, you will be able to recognize the enemy in every form that he comes in before I am through [so] that you can take your stand upon My Word and employ those things that you have meditated and heard to stand your ground on the rock and learn how, through your confession, like Joshua, to use meditation to talk and say only what I say about your problem and see only the thing I do and meditate day and night until I conform you to truth before I am through. You will stand tall in My Presence and recognize the enemy on every hand. Not only will you be victorious in your personal lives, but you will take your land.

In ranks and lines of attack does the enemy first send the more expendable ones and holds the greater ones back. For when, by revelation knowledge, you come to the place where you can see through his devices and his trickery, as persecutions and afflictions are, then with you, this line of attack no more can they do. But when the host of ranks pull back and are replaced by the greater ones, they come in philosophizing and preaching diversion of the Son. They will make the night look like the light. Seduction and heresy and division are their might. They will divide the camp in fractions, and against each other, they shall fight.

But My children, you are not children of the darkness. No, no, no, you are children of the light. It is a must that you hold forth the Word by the power of My Spirit, where your entire being is transformed to the things that you have heard. Not those things only, says the Spirit of Grace, that you admire from My Word—your rights, those high places in Me of glory and honor and prestige—but yes, those low places of exaltation, even those dark places that I will send you to loose the bands of wickedness.

I will be your Rear Guard and your Strength and your Grace. Your exaltation shall be from above. No one will even know that you are one of My great ones but Me. I will use you to set many free. But to be transformed, to humble yourself under My hand, and to hear My Word—not the knowledge, but transformation of your entire life to the things that you have heard—and [to] survive—by the renewing of your mind and the clothing of yourself in righteousness and true holiness—the attack of division launched in these last days that I may bring you beyond that barrier of flesh.

I have saved you who will hear and adhere to the things that you heard for the last wave of attack, for great revival shall be in the land—in those people, I will manifest My hand. The apostle will come forth and the prophet will come forth and the teacher of mighty revelation and power, as never before, you will see in that hour. And pastors who will hold the banner of power—magnificence and glory and power—they will manifest in that last hour. My evangelist shall be bathed in the glory of light that nations will bow their knees and know that they have been sent by Me.

Yes, a revival of My hand in the last day—as I nurture those people against the last lines of attack—will survive the heresies and divisions. You will be a people seasoned and matured by My Spirit. Therefore, yield yourself to the fervency of this hour and give not place—no not one place for one hour[except] to My things of the Spirit and My prayer and My supplications in the handling and wielding of the Sword—and you shall see, I will cycle this generation to a revival that you will say is of Me.

No One Matures Until Their Thinking Becomes My Thinking

Arm yourself with the Sword, which is the Word of God, for the weapons of your warfare are not carnal, but they are mighty through My power to the pulling down of strongholds that consist of imaginations and the high things that set themselves against the knowledge of God,[strongholds] which are in your life that you are receiving or that you are already established in. So hear what the Spirit would say, for no one matures in My grace until their thinking becomes My thinking. Until this transformation is complete, no one matures in My Presence. So hear what the Spirit would say and find out how I fulfill My perfect will in you through transformation of My Word to be not conformed to this world but to be transformed by the renewing of your mind. So hear what the Spirit would say even this day, says the Spirit of Grace

The Messages That Are Coming

The messages that are coming will not be “namby pamby,” and those who do not know Me will find them very hard to tolerate in their souls. Some of these I speak of sit in the midst of you and some will find it very hard to restrain themselves from leaving. Some will leave, and some will stay, but with much struggle—these are not easy days that are coming.

There will also be those who listen on the Web, who are not doing “the message” and they will find them very intolerable for their souls, but it is necessary for these messages to come forth, for the building I am building must be built in the manner in which I am building it so that it will not be shaken in the storms that lie ahead. I am preparing a people to walk through storms in My peace.

My peace comes from fellowship with Me, and this fellowship is your strength. Those who do not know the message of My fellowship will not be able to stand through some of the storms that you will walk through, but because you are allowing My truths to be spoken and My building to be built tall and strong, your buildings will stand in the storms ahead.

Rejoice and be glad that I am able to say the things that I am saying. These are the things I have wanted to say and that are necessary for what lies ahead and are necessary for the outpouring that will come which will precede My return.

Oh, I am glad.

My Plans Have Not Changed

My plans have not and will not change regarding the mission of the Family Prayer Center—no matter who stays or goes. No matter what you think is right or wrong here, it does not change My plan for you or the body of The Family Prayer Center.

Obedience is all I need. We will have our revival. Every day we are closer than before.

The Assignment God Gave Is Going to Be Completed

The purpose will come to pass for what The Prayer Center has been directed to do.

There has been an assignment given to not this group, but the assignment that has been given to The Prayer Center family. It is the ones around anywhere who have attached [themselves] to the standards of prayer and fasting, but not just the standards of prayer of fasting but of not pursuing your own ministry, your own dreams, [but also standards] of laying your life down, of not building something of men, that type of thing.

If you have been attached to us either by your heart or by God's will—attached to this assignment—it is moving forward. It has made leaps and bounds over the last few years—unseen leaps and bounds the last few years.

I need to say that again: The assignment that God gave has progressed in leaps and bounds over the last few years, and it is going to be completed. So don't be discouraged. Don't be disheartened. Don't listen to failure or defeat, because it is not true. Keep moving forward, because in you is something precious that is being built that you carry with you everywhere you go.

He is seeking for a revival of love, of integrity, of sincerity, of holiness, a revival of God's power, a revival of God's heart. And it may seem like the length of time to get there may look like it is because it is not working, but it is. If you just look inward, you will find out that it is.

A Great Sign Will Be the Fervent Love

A great sign of the last days will be the fervent love that those who have entered into My Presence will have one for another. They shall not be a people who will strive and contend against one another. You will see and marvel and behold a wonder in the last days, says the Spirit. I will open the flood gates and the Holy Spirit will cover the land as water covers the sea. All those who call upon Me—who have allowed Me to purge their flesh even as the flood did purge the early world—if you will allow Me to purge your flesh, in that day, when the gates are opened and My Spirit covers the world like the water covers the sea, you will see a Body of believers who shall rise and walk in a power against the evil and onslaught of that hour. I will fill you with joy.

For those who will enter in, says the Spirit, they will believe that their whole ministry has begun again. But know this: Those whom you think would be used by My power will seem to be put on the shelf at that hour, and those who seem to be nobody will be exalted, because they have been preparing themselves behind the scenes for this day which is to come.

So I would say unto you, My children, take the one foot out of the world and put it into the Gospel with your other one and contend with Me in fasting and in prayer that I may pour My Spirit out upon flesh in the latter rain, and you shall see a wonder. You will wonder and behold and say, "It is the hand of the Lord."

I shall use the handmaiden all the way to the mighty warrior, for My Spirit shall be poured with no restrictions upon all flesh who will receive the purging of My hand at this hour.
