

“The Revival I Am Sending”

There Is No Need to Fear

To those with a sense of fear or trepidation, I say, there is no need to fear the giants. There is no need to be in dread of the battles you will face in your walk with Me. There is no need to fear.

Do you battle on your own? Do you battle in your own strength or your own wisdom? Have I not made My grace available, and is not My strength yours? Have I not freely given you My mind through My Spirit, and has not My authority been given to you?

Whose inheritance do you share if not My own with My Son? Are you not made partakers of My own nature? Has not all provision been given to you by My grace?

Expect! Expect! See who you really are in Me and expect!

The great King David did not win battles in his own might or his own strength. He relied on Me. With one stone he slew a mighty giant. In like manner, with one truth you can put giants under your feet. In the grace of your God, you can slay your enemies that have been lying to you.

It is no small thing to live your life IN ME. Everything you are now in Me is your victory, and all of My Word is your truth and overcomes every deception the enemy uses against you. You are overcomers in Me, and you need not fear what the enemy brings. See yourself in Me.

See yourself in Me—see yourself in the armor of who you are IN ME. Walk in this righteousness. “See” in this righteousness. Live in this righteousness. Be aware of your life in Me and overcome this dread of your enemy. This is not of Me. He is the one who has already been defeated. The victory is yours.

Rise up in courage and face your enemy of dread. Face your enemy of fear and trepidation and say only what the Word says about your standing in Me that is a standing without fear. You have overcome all your enemies in your place in Me. You have been given the victory over your enemy, and your next step is to confront the lies. Stop them with My truth and address the deceptions that crowd your thinking with My authority that you have been given. There is no need to fear. I have given you the victory every step of the way. Now walk in it. I am with you.

Be at Peace

Be at peace, be at peace. Let the waves of My peace wash over you. Let My love cleanse away all guilt. Let My love cleanse away all condemnation. Let My love cleanse and wash away all fear. Every day, every day, veils of deception are being lifted from your eyes as you seek Me. Every day, you see further into the realm of the Spirit and you see those things that are of Me and not of man. You see those things that are of Me, not of the enemy. You see those things that are of the Spirit and not of the flesh. Trust Me, trust Me, says the Lord. For veils of deception, even beyond your current understanding, are being lifted from before your eyes that you may see ever more clearly into the land which is your inheritance, says the Lord.

Do everything with calmness of spirit. Take every step in peace, knowing that I am directing your path daily. Be not fearful nor anxious nor fretful, nor looking about saying; “Where is my help? Where is my help?” For I am your Help, says the Lord. I am your exceeding great Reward. I am your Shield and I am your Buckler. I am your Strength, and I am your Peace. Look to none but Me and I will provide everything you need every step of the way.

Be at peace, let My peace wash over you. By the still waters is where your refreshing is, says the Lord. I lead you by those still waters. I cause you to lie down in grassy areas of peace, in beautiful meadows where the sunshine falls upon you gently, warming your soul and filling you with thanksgiving, joy, and peace, says the Lord. Be not moved by those things of the flesh, be not moved by those circumstances that surround you, but stay in My peace, says the Lord. The peace I give is not as the world gives.

Know that you are loved. I am pleased with you, says the Lord. Let no man take My peace from you, for it is Mine. I give it to you—no man can take it, lest you yield it. I give it to you as a gift. Walk in it, enjoy My peace, be at peace and be at rest. Be at peace and be at rest. When it comes to accomplishing the natural things, those who walk in My peace and hear My wisdom are able to accomplish so much more than those who are always fretful and anxious and looking about, working with fleshly means to accomplish fleshly results.

My peace is mandatory for My leadership. You will not find My leadership in rooms of confusion, rooms of agitation, rooms of anxiousness, nor rooms of fretfulness. There, you will not find My leadership. You will find My leadership in My peace when you are at rest trusting in Me.

Oh, trust Me, says the Lord. Be at peace even when in the natural it seems like you are falling so far behind. Trust Me, says the Lord, for therein is My leadership. In the stillness of the quiet place where you fellowship with Me, you will find My leadership. The leadership of My wisdom shall prevail and overcome all and accomplish all that you need to do. Stay in rooms of peace even when things are very busy. Stay in My rooms of peace that the waves of My peace wash over you, for therein, you will find My leadership.

Whole Cities of Sinners Will Be Left Without Doubt

What I am sending—the revival—will carry a weight and power that have not been recognized very many times through the centuries.

I will come in with such definition that you will be able to define what I am doing and know that nobody else could do it but Me. And it will be in such a way—the signs and wonders—in the way that people go in helping them in the impossible that whole cities of sinners will be left without doubt, [without] wondering what to do about their next step. All I need is people that can turn Me loose on that level of freedom.

The Army I Send Will Be Well-Equipped

For aggressive they shall be, and indeed, they shall invade the dark places. But they will do it with such a success that has not been seen for many centuries, because I am pulling all things together for the things I will do in these last days. Never will the army I send in be more well-equipped by the things of the Spirit. Never will My government be more in operation and My blessing more at hand for you. For you will say, “It seems like I am walking in a new place.” To you it is a new place. To you it is a new place. To you it is a new place—but to Me, it is one that I have always had established for you.

So be strong and know that line upon line, precept upon precept, I have many plans for both you and for those who shall go forth from you in this earth this day, says the Lord.

Continue to Praise and Worship, and You Will Set Me Free

For powerful things will be created in an atmosphere of the Spirit and will turn Me loose and set Me free, says the Lord. Things will continue to change from glory to glory. In history, they had revivals. You are about to repeat the story. For healing revivals, they attract attention of the sense ones, you see. Then they reach to the believer and attain things that caused them to be set free. Oh, great things are coming, so continue to praise and worship, and I will continue in bringing you to greater degrees of My Spirit. For you will see, you are about to reach a place as a church that you will set Me free.
