

The Lord's Present-Day Speaking
2015 Prayer and Power Conference

PT151004A – Oct 4, 2015
Many Shall Be Healed in the Turmoil

I have waited long with this house as I waited with Abraham, but lo, Isaac is about to be born! I am only just beginning with this house [church], for I have waited and tested you and found you faithful and humble. Therefore, prepare, for now the Lord shall exalt you, and growth is coming, for there shall be miracles and manifestations of the Spirit in this house.

I have heard your prayers and have answered, for it is not the presence of what was that is coming, but a new anointing and a new level of power that shall come upon this house, for I have a purpose for this house yet to be revealed.

For this house is yet a babe in what I shall accomplish through it, for you are the diamond set in the rock, but now know the Lord is about to adorn you. I am bringing sons into this house, Elisha into this house. And I shall bring sheep into this house to receive what I am going to do. For I have found you faithful, and I have found love in your midst, says the Lord.

In my spirit, I saw many miracles and lame men walking in the services and a demonstration of power in the time to come in this house that many shall be healed in the turmoil and time to come.

PT151004B – Oct 4, 2015
Your Loved Ones—I Am Pursuing Them

I would have you know that every name of your loved ones that you have put before Me, I am wooing them; I am pursuing them. Every second of every day, I plan happenings in their life for them to see Me—to see Me and for their hearts to be moved to begin to surrender their will. For I will never, ever coerce or force someone to give their life, or any portion of it, to Me.

Everything I do to bring a person to the point of surrender—it is the purest form of love. There is never any trace of manipulation. A person's free will is nothing that true love can infringe upon.

Continue to speak My Word over their lives and know this for a certainty: My spoken Word cannot return void.

PT151005A – Oct 5, 2015
My Work in Your Lives Is Strong

What are you hearing Me say to you? Is it only on the performance side of things? Hear My great love for you and the pleasure that you bring Me, both as a group united and as well as individually.

Your enemy enjoys coming and preying on your weaknesses and shortcomings and taunting you about those things, but I am making your weak places strong in Me, and I am using what you give Me to bring an increase that will allow Me to bring much power on behalf of others, and this kind of power comes quickly.

I am pleased at the changes I have been allowed to bring forth in each one. My power has been working at the very root of things, and you are all experiencing much difference from My Spirit's power working. Much truth has been received and the process of change has increased rapidly. I know that, at times, it does not feel like anything is happening, but you are learning to not be moved by what you hear and see and to keep your eyes on Me. This is needed for what I am bringing.

It has been a season of drawing you aside to Me, a season of purging and refreshing, of learning to lean in even closer to trust Me, and of growing in understanding of the life in you that is of Me. I need a people of understanding and a people of one accord in Me. All of this is very necessary for the level of co-laboring I am bringing. I am pleased.

The enemy has come and will come, and he will try to bring dissension and disunity. Another wave of his attack is coming. Stay on guard to these things and hold fast to My Word and ways and rejoice as you walk through what he is bringing. Keep the love abounding in purity of truth and enjoy our fellowship while your trust continues increasing. Your adversary WILL try to sneak in, but I have My watchers, and as you stay on the path, I will lead you safely through the troops of the enemy. Know that I am very pleased at the unity I am seeing, and it is precious to Me.

I am quickly, quickly bringing you forward in your standing in Me, and great shall be the power that shall be released, because My power is working, bringing the individual changes that only I can bring. Understand My great joy to work by My Spirit in your lives. Never take lightly how I cherish the fellowship and the opportunity to work individually in you by My Spirit and to train you very personally. Your attentiveness and endurance are pleasing to Me.

Be encouraged, for My work in your lives is strong, though it is not yet fully seen. The power of My Spirit is working, and I am bringing you forward—strong in your standing in Me. I am preparing you as you give yourself to Me, and the increase I am bringing—it will be seen. It will be seen.

My power is working in you so that I can release great power through you in the days ahead. Be expectant of these things. Say who you are continually and say not what you see. The image you are speaking is not just dreams, it is the reality of your inheritance, your life in Me, and I am helping you to be strong where you have been weak and helping you to understand who you are in Me so it becomes how you live and move and breathe. I am working powerfully behind the scenes and preparing you for many great things.

The path has not been easy. Be encouraged: I know. I see. I am Love, and I am most pleased. My power is working in you, and great power shall be seen.

PT151005B – Oct 5, 2015
I Want to Use Your Prayers for Your Nation

I want to use your prayers to bring change concerning the nation. I want to bring change. My desire is mercy and not judgment, and I want to use the mind of My Spirit in your prayers to not only change you but bring about changes that will have an effect at the national level to do things I have not yet been able to do. I need the prayers of My Body. My work in nations is important, and some nations stand at crossroads. I desire mercy, not judgment, even if it means a time of mercy is extended.

A nation of individuals—I see each nation. I know, and I see ahead where things might go, and I desire to move. It is My Body I move through. As you pray in the Spirit, My Spirit is released to bring forth My mind—My plans for your lives and for the lives of others and concerning the nation. Pray much in the Spirit in the days ahead.

Pray much and know it is a supernatural move of God that you are releasing every time you pray in the Spirit, for I bring the prayer according to My mind, and I have the power to bring the prayers to pass. Who else can do that? Who else knows what to pray about and in what order? Who else knows how to bring prayers to pass like this? Who else knows how to move on this heart and that heart and reach into an individual's life and heal, deliver, and restore, and bring wisdom and answers and much more? Not only do I use your prayers, but I also know how to tap one here and tap one there to join their prayer to yours so that I can move according to My mind.

Praying in the Spirit is a supernatural thing—it is My power at work. It is My power at work, not just in individuals, but there are also prayers concerning nations that I am looking to release through you. I desire to use the prayers of those who will heed this word to pray so that My power is released to bring about some changes. Change is close, but it will only come to completion through the authority released through the prayers of My Body, and when you pray according to My mind, the prayers are pure. They are according to truth and My will and, therefore, can be answered.

For some nations, there will be strong change. For others, the great change will be an extended time of mercy in the lives of individuals and concerning the nation. My love is longsuffering. I endure long, for I desire truth and that no one be lost. I see the hearts of men in the nations, and change is close. Pray much—I am on the verge of doing some things, and your prayers release Me to move supernaturally. All that I do is supernatural.

Take these things to heart and give yourself to these things and pray much in the Spirit. It is a supernatural thing. It is My will and My power being released through you.

PT151005C – Oct 5, 2015
I Am Yours and You Are Mine

When you truly come to understand that you are Mine, you enter a realm of rest. You begin to understand that because you belong to Me, you are My responsibility. As My child, you come to understand that I am a responsible Father, a Father who can be trusted with the outcome of your life in all circumstances you find yourself in. It is not so much what you have been taught—that you are My possession, so I own you: a “slavery” mentality. I want you to know that you are Mine. You are My child—My responsibility. It is My good pleasure to care for you—to love you, to nurture you, to see to it that you have what you need to grow and flourish in all I have created you for, both to do and to be.

My owning you as a “slave” is your decision—the place where you come to understand it is good in My house, in My household, to the point that you are so free, free to lay your life down in My love and My plan for you. For you will enter into the place of understanding that, as My child, I have your complete and total well-being, your desired haven of rest, because I love you. You are free to love Me and then to love others the way you love Me.

PT151005D – Oct 5, 2015
A Supernatural Peace and a Complete Refreshing

When My Son said that He would leave you His peace, a peace that the world cannot give, He was speaking of a supernatural peace that supersedes everything the human mind can comprehend. That is because the peace He spoke of arises out of My life and My nature and My character. That peace is in this place now, and there are those of you who are receiving a refreshing in your spirit and in your soul of this peace, and it is something that you have been looking for so long, so very long. And you are experiencing it because the atmosphere created by worship has opened a door of your heart for Me to begin to release into you this peace.

There are those of you in this room, this moment, wishing that you could have this when you go back home, and I say unto you: Not only am I not a respecter of persons, but I am not a respecter of places. If you will worship Me at home, you can have what you are experiencing now. I will touch you in your home, in your car. I will touch you in the same way that I am touching you here. I will make Myself so real to you that you will not doubt My love for you. You will know that I have a divine plan for your life, and you will fall deeper in love with Me.

I say to you: Do not think that what you are feeling and experiencing now can only be had in Tulsa in these conferences, for I said that I would inhabit the praises of My children. You are My child, and I will tangibly inhabit your praise when you open your heart and release what already exists in there.

So know this: You are not here by accident. You are here, in part, to be trained how to know Me as your loving Father in a way that you have never understood. My intention is to use this week to release a complete refreshing in all areas of your life and send you back home renewed and re-strengthened in your walk with Me. So take every moment of these services seriously, and know that even when the services end, I will continue to work in you to will and to do of My good pleasure, says the Lord.

PT151006A– Oct 6, 2015
Vision—Overcoming Grace

I sensed the love of God in a different way. It was likened to an energy force—pulsating. I knew there were angels and witnesses in the spirit. They were watching as if in awe.

I heard God say, “I am bringing an enduring grace that will accompany peace.” He said those two together equaled endurance.

God said we do not fully understand what the Holy Ghost values—we only had glimpses of love or this grace. I heard God say, “Honor to the overcomer,” and as I looked behind the one who was to speak, I saw many individuals walking. They were war-torn, limping—bandages, crutches, some dragging limbs. I heard God say again, “These are those who would not give up.”

They were following the same path. They represented each one of us and the battles, the wars we have been fighting, and He was saying an overcoming grace we had not yet walked in was coming to us in this conference.

PT151006B – Oct 6, 2015
Take Your Hope From the Word

Think it not strange concerning the fiery trial which has come to try you as though some strange thing out of the ordinary has come, some strange thing that would dictate, orchestrate, and author the end of your life. Do not think it strange, says the Spirit of Grace.

“What have I done wrong? What’s wrong with me? Where am I at? Where have I lost my vision?” These questions and many more—the one that has come to try you as with fire, it is not about you. It is not about your family. It is not about your life that he is after to destroy, but he sees in you the potential of what I have laid in the foundation in you for a long, long, long time, says the Spirit of Grace.

You will come through these things. You will manifest My glory. Those of you that hang on, you will look back and say, “These weren’t strange times. These were the most blessed times. These were the times of growth. These were the times that we heard would come, and we made it past.”

To prophesy that [you are] on the brink of something new and something fresh and the house being filled once again is not the hope inspired by man. It is not the preface of those things that are congregated and derived by coming together and putting together a conference. I placed these things together, says the Spirit of Grace, and the faith and the hope that I am placing inside of you to look and say [that] just beyond this moment in time is an explosion in My Spirit. These things are true. They are faithful, and they will come to pass, says the Spirit of Grace.

Take your hope from the witness and take your hope from the Word that has been sown in you generation after generation, and you will see these things come to pass, says the Spirit of Grace.

PT151007 – Oct 7, 2015
I Place Great Value on Humility

Humility is a place of safety, and it is strength in Me. It is not that storms do not come to those who walk humbly before Me, but in humility, there is laser focus, and in laser focus, there is strength and there is peace. I am your Strength. I am your Peace. I enter in through the gates of humility, and I bring grace and truth and victory.

This next part of the path will be filled with the pleasing fragrance of your humility, for there is no going ahead into the mighty things of My Spirit without great humility. I have many, many who have humbled themselves under My mighty hand that I might exalt them in due season—there is an exaltation coming. There is an exaltation coming, and it is by My mighty hand. It is by My great grace, and it is in My great strength.

I am in your midst as Love, and I am in your midst as Wisdom, and great grace and truth are being poured out as My Spirit prepares and equips you for each step ahead. The work of My Spirit has brought you this far, and as you forge ahead in the strength I am delivering, be mindful of the grace and standing you rest in. Be mindful of the things I am speaking and the things I have said, for I speak to the humble the right words at the right time, and My words are spirit and they are life.

The prideful will come with their own agendas in hand. They will come to be lifted up by their own strength and might. Evident in their plans will be the hurriedness of pride. Their plans and their thoughts will not be toward the good of others but for their own purposes that they might adorn themselves with the “jewels” of self-promotion. The enemy will stir up the prideful to come—to disrupt, to rob, and to divide.

Oh, but I have found many hearts of humility, and in this humility, there is peace and there is wisdom. Humility finds rest in our fellowship, in our embrace, and finds comfort and answers in Me. Humility looks to Me, leans on Me, and finds great grace in time of need. Humility savors the treasures of wisdom that are found in Me. Humility is dependent on Me.

In pride there is tumult and strife, judgment from an offended soul, and much self-seeking. The prideful who come will be holding to these things and be lifted up in self-promotion, looking to themselves more than to Me. It is not that they don't love Me, but they love areas of their flesh more than they love Me, therefore limiting their desire and ability to receive much of what they need. The enemy is able to use these prideful ones where they are still serving themselves and not Me.

There is much safety in humility, for humility opens its doors to the grace and truth I bring. Humility looks to Me to receive, and true humility desires mercy over judgment and embraces truth even when it is not comfortable or easy. Humility is where My waters flow, waters of healing and truth and wisdom and power and provision, and these waters abound in My compassion and peace. Many have come to these waters to drink, but these waters are about to increase.

Your life is in Me, and humility is living in this reality. Humility is willingness to proceed, to endure, and to continually lean on Me to move beyond struggles, weaknesses, and misunderstandings. There is the sweet savor of fellowship in humility, and it is the bedrock of great intimacy. It is the humble heart who explores the treasures found in Me. Humility is a safe place in Me, for it is fellowship and trust, and it is the willingness I need. Humility's value cannot be calculated by earthly means.

Pride has the purpose of being exalted, and I use the prideful until their exaltation becomes more important than their life in Me. Some of those who come will be close to this line, and I will be giving them opportunity to choose Me. You have allowed My Spirit to bring to the corporate atmosphere more of My love and grace and power, and because of this, I will be giving some of those who come an opportunity to receive from Me before they turn too far in exalting themselves and begin to lessen their hold on Me.

My wisdom to no longer allow wolves is necessary—this wisdom protects. Adhere to the wisdom of protection. This wisdom is also My warning to those who are dangerously close to veering onto paths of gross pride and turning themselves over to the enemy.

Humility is a safe place indeed. It is trust. It is a refuge. It is hiding in Me. It is growth. It is learning. It is relying on Me. It is surrender. It is repentance. It is willingness to obey and cling to Me. Humility is a great treasure to Me, for it is the heart that comes to Me to love and to receive. Humility is a safe place in Me. I place great value on humility.