

Brought To The Door

Although you are having difficulty hearing the questions posed by your spirit, understand and know that I have not the same difficulty. I hear every question your spirit asks, and I am answering those questions line upon line, precept upon precept. Trust Me when I say that this training is very orderly and sequential. Remember, it is your spirit man that I am nurturing, not your soul. Again I remind you, the renewing of the soul is a byproduct of this process.

The person you esteem as being “you” is not the person I esteem as being “you.” In your estimation, the person you regard as being “you” is the soul-ruled man. That is why you feel abandoned when your soul knows not what actions to take in the natural realm. To this hour, you have relied most heavily on obtaining direction from your soul. When your soul knows not what to do, then you esteem that “you” know not what to do. That is typical of the man who is still ruled by his soul. I am progressively bringing you out from under the dominion of the soul..

The person I regard as being “you” is the spirit-ruled man. Remember My words to you, “Dominion is by the spirit, son. The life that has been imparted to your spirit is the life upon which I exercise dominion.” It is your spirit that I am nurturing, not your soul.

Let me give you a little more insight into the nature of the unrenewed soul, the soul that has not yet become the “Soul of Meekness.” The unrenewed soul desires lordship at all costs. It would prefer to enter into the Lamb’s Room Of Fellowship while your spirit man sat outside that room in a chair. Your soul would prefer to be the one who stands before the Lamb to receive His counsel, then to emerge from that room and exercise lordship over your spirit man by dictating to him what the soul heard within. That would result in your spirit man always being the servant of your soul. This was never the Father’s plan!

No, you are to rule by your spirit. For this season I have brought your soul right up to the door of the Lamb’s Room Of Fellowship, but it is your soul that must sit in a chair outside the door while your spirit goes in to fellowship with the Lamb. Periodically, as your spirit understands new things, you have noticed how it emerges from the room and explains these things to your soul. By this method, your soul is becoming more and more dependent upon your spirit. By this method your soul is becoming the Soul Of Meekness. Your spirit is taking lordship over your soul progressively every day by this process.

Again I say, Trust Me! I am bringing the transformation you seek as rapidly as is possible. I am pleased that you have chosen to allow more time for Me to school and train and nurture your spirit. The Lamb is pleased. The Father is pleased.

Be at peace and focus on time remaining, not time lost. If you continue to focus on time remaining, you will have an abundant entrance into heaven rejoicing over the sheaves of harvest that you gathered into the Father’s granary.

Vision Of The Soul-Ruled Man

Vision - I see this child representing the soul sitting on the shoulders of a man. No doubt the man represents the new nature. The soul has been directing the path of the spirit man for a long time. I can see and hear the childlike soul “demanding” answers from the Holy Spirit that would keep its programs prospering. It reminds me of a spoiled child who does his best to rule over his parents. Sometimes pleading, sometimes crying, sometimes demanding, sometimes pouting, sometimes shouting. But the end result of all its machinations is “Give me answers that will keep me in the position of lord over the spirit man.” I see this child sitting on the shoulders of the spirit man shaking his fist toward heaven saying, “You MUST give me the answers I need or I will lose my position as lord.” Of course, the Holy Spirit remains silent. That is His plan and purpose, that the soul loses its dominion over the reborn human spirit.
