The Gifts Are Given, but Fruit Is Grown

Children, children, children, I have given you the gifts. They are gifts—you are ready. Go forth. Covet earnestly the best gifts. Wait not. Go forth. Trust Me.

The gifts are given, but fruit is grown, and the first fruit of the spirit is love. When I speak of going from the gifts to love, I speak of maturity—from those who are carnal to those who are growing up into spiritual.

Listen to Me, child. I have not had you here all these years for you to say with your mouth, “I am carnal.” Trust Me when I say, I see fruit. I see fruit. I see fruit. Love is the first fruit.

1 Corinthians 12:31 But covet earnestly the best gifts: and yet shew I unto you a more excellent way.

Ephesians 4:15 But speaking the truth in love, may grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Christ:

Galatians 5:22-23 But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, 23 Meekness, temperance: against such there is no law.
