Know Your Significance

I have birthed you for a sole purpose, and yet you hardly know your significance. Do not let the flesh or the mundane blind you. “I know me. I know me,” says Self unto you—“I know me; I’m just me.” But I say unto you that you are My son, My daughter, My high priest who is to bring forth the high praises and the intercession in the earth that will bring forth the great and last-day harvest of My Kingdom, says the Spirit of Grace. For you’ve not expected more of yourself as you should. But expect far more of yourself in going forward.

Put a higher mark to your life and expect yourself to be in a place with Me that can turn the city and that can turn the nation, says the Spirit of Grace. When you think of smaller terms of yourself, you minimize My ability to flow through you in authority and expectation of things in faith that will truly turn a city upside down, says the Spirit of the Lord.

When you relate to yourself as you would relate to a friend with many faults, and do not see the higher part of you which is called up into higher places to make intercession for the city, when you live out of the familiar, then you demoralize and bring low the place of authority that is in you that I have placed to bring forth the revival, says the Spirit of Grace.

There is a pride that can exist out of the flesh, and too many guard themselves at the expense of the Spirit saying, “I will not pride myself over there,” but yet in the same way, you’ll not live out of that place of authority by familiarizing yourself with the flesh. But you must, you must come up higher, expect more, and do more and be more for Me, for that place of authority, says the Spirit of Grace.

Revelation 1:5,6 And from Jesus Christ, who is the faithful witness, and the first begotten of the dead, and the prince of the kings of the earth. Unto him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood, 6 And hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father; to him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

Galatians 2:20 I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me.

Colossians 3:1-4 If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God. 2 Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth. 3 For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God. 4 When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in glory.
