Forgive and Let Things Go

Think it not strange when men would revile and say things wrongly about you. When they would persecute you falsely for My Name's sake, think it not strange. Think it not strange and stand strong in Me and allow My grace to sustain you and for you to speak peace into men's lives regardless of what they say, to speak life when it looks like sudden death and sure death.

Speak life, I say, and let that life dominate you from the inside out. And oh, I say, men shall be changed and many things that have hindered men shall be shattered before you, and you'll see them come in.

I delight when men forgive one another and they stand in My stead and release My authority that they may set them free, that I may go after them, even as Stephen forgave and released those who stoned him.

Many powers are broken through forgiveness, I say, for no man can resist My love when they see it in its fullness. When they see it demonstrated through others, I say, it is very difficult for them, and it sticks with them. And it haunts them and it follows them, for they can't understand in their natural mind how someone can forgive them.

You think what you do is not important, but this I say, My words are true and men are set free, and they receive freedom in Me. Whether they be believer or sinner, their eyes are opened and they begin to see. So forgive this day and let things go and stand in My love and receive of Me. And don't forget, the insults of those who insult you are falling upon Me, and My shoulders are more than big enough to bear it. So you can stand. You can stand with Me, for My grace is enough.

My power is great in you when you forgive. Many will see, many will come. They'll know—they know reality; they know truth when they see it in action.

Matthew 5:11 Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake.

Acts 7:59,60 And they stoned Stephen, calling upon God, and saying, Lord Jesus, receive my spirit. 60 And he kneeled down, and cried with a loud voice, Lord, lay not this sin to their charge. And when he had said this, he fell asleep.

2 Corinthians 5:18,19 And all things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation; 19 To wit, that God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them; and hath committed unto us the word of reconciliation.
