

The Lord's Present-Day Speaking

It's Too Late to Stop Revival

It's too late, says the Spirit of the Lord. It is far too late, says the Lord, for this thing to be stopped. It has been declared in Heaven, and it has been released. The dam of My glory has already burst, says the Spirit of the Lord. It is past the point of any adversary stopping this outpouring, says the Spirit of the Lord. That which I have decreed has been sent forth. The army hosts of Heaven have already been briefed in the Spirit, and assignments have already gone out, says the Spirit of the Lord, of the whens and the wheres of how these things will fall over My nation and over this nation, says the Spirit of Grace. For the adversaries in the Church or out of the Church to stop this thing, it is far too late, says the Spirit of the Lord.

This thing has come to a cup that is full in measure, and I have received the prayers of My people and the earnestness of them, says the Lord. So I say unto you that which I have said many times in the past, get ready, but be earnest in your expectation. As the children of Israel stayed up all night the night before their passage into freedom, with their sandals on and their shoes and their clothes, and they ate their meal in speed as if something was about to happen, so say I unto you, expect this thing, for nothing now can stop it! It has come to full measure, and that authority in the earth which I have yearned for and asked for has come to a place, says the Spirit of the Lord.

Many will continue, and I encourage you to continue to speak My Word as this birthing comes through the birth canal into the fullness. But I say unto you, this thing has been released in Heaven. I say unto you, the assignments of the whens and the wheres of how this thing will come about, where it will fall, and how it will leap from place to place has already been assigned, says the Spirit of the Lord, based upon authority and based upon prayers of My saints. So I'd say unto you: Live in the expectation of it in an earnest manner. Turn aside! Turn aside from anyone who has any less expectation and says these [things] are a pipe dream or something that has been orchestrated by man, says the Spirit of the Lord. Do not even try to convince them otherwise. Turn aside and go on your way, because the expectation is now, says the Spirit of the Lord. Stay in that place, ready to receive, because I say unto you, the night is far spent, the day is at hand, says the Lord.
