

The Lord's Present-Day Speaking

Where Is the Fight of Faith?

Where is the fight of faith that is in this? Where is the fight of faith? Does not faith come by hearing, and hearing by the Word of God? Yes, and I would say to you that faith comes by hearing and hearing who you are and what your standing is in Me. Therefore, hear what the Spirit would say: Are you not exercising faith when your senses and the circumstances and your body says you cannot go on, yet you lift your hands and worship Me, and say, "Because of Him, I CAN go on"?

That is the strongest manifestation of faith—when you worship Me until your whole spirit, soul, and body come into agreement with what I have done. For My joy is your strength, and there is only one thing left and that would be your victory.

It has been some time, says the Lord, that I have been preparing this foundation, for you are nearing the time when I will be able to pour My Spirit out upon this city. But hear this: Have I not prepared you for that outpouring? For many of you will be called on by Me to move forward. There will be more ministry than a large crowd can handle when I pour My Spirit out. So be strong, be prepared, walk softly in My Presence as one who wears the armor of My light.

I am preparing you for a time that is short—a time when I will unveil My hand in a mighty way. Therefore, be prepared to step forward. Be prepared to be used. Be prepared to nurture. Be prepared to teach. Oh, will there be much teaching required—I will need those who will expound on the mysteries of My milk and those who will expound correction for those who walk the wrong paths and those who will teach who they are in Christ and those whom I will enlist—I just saw Him transfer anointings—for those who will not only have received but will transfer what they have received.

Many, many will leave this city armed in a short time with what they received from My outpouring. I desire to do a great thing in this city, and I have desired it for many years. I have had those, My servants, come here, and they would bring revival to a certain point. But hear: All this has worked together for the good. I have had servants in this city whose heart was after Me. All this has worked together for the good. For I am getting ready for this great outpouring, and it will take all that you know collectively to sustain what I am doing, says the Lord.
